

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 9th day of March, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the Archdeaconry of Salop, in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the common fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as in that case to raise the average annual income thereof, to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, with a proviso that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation, or other emolument as such archdeacon under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licenses for non residence, which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and residence in the same Act mentioned.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and duly gazetted, it was provided that the annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds should be paid by us to the Archdeacon of Salop, for the time being.

"And whereas the amount of the said grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum was fixed on the assumption that the average annual income of the said archdeaconry, arising from other sources, amounted to fifty pounds, and it has been made to appear to us that such average annual income did not exceed the sum of thirty-four pounds.

"We therefore humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that in addition to the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds in the said first recited Order mentioned, there shall be paid by us out of the Common Fund in the said Act mentioned, to the Archdeacon of Salop, in the diocese of Lichfield, for the time being, the further annual sum of sixteen pounds; and that a rateable payment from the date of his appointment to the first day of January now last past, shall be forthwith made to the Venerable John Allen, the present holder of the said archdeaconry, and that every future payment shall be made only on production to us of a certificate from the bishop that the archdeacon claiming the same has duly resided within the Diocese of Lichfield, according to the provisions of the said recited Act, or has been legally exempt from such residence.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said archdeaconry, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Lichfield.
