Cornwall Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Bill has been introduced into the Honourable the House of Commons, for enabling the Cornwall Railway Company to make certain modifications in their share capital, and for other purposes, whereby it is proposed to empower the Company, at the request of any shareholder, to divide his shares or any of them into two shares of ten pounds each, one of such shares to be considered as paid up in full, and the other of such shares to remain liable to the calls which might be made upon or in respect of the existing share so divided, had the same remained undivided; and the said Bill prescribes the relative rights and interests to be attached to each of the shares into which any existing share may be divided.

And the said Bill also empowers the Company, under certain restrictions, to cancel any shares now or hereafter to be forfeited, and to create and issue new shares in lieu thereof, of such amount and denomination, on such terms and conditions, and with such respective rights and privileges as are defined in the said Bill.

And the said Bill also alters and amends, so far as may be necessary for the purposes before men-
