

Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, has signed and sealed this representation, and the said Principal and Fellows and Scholars have hereto affixed their common seal.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, and the said Principal and Fellows and Scholars (as such respective Patrons as aforesaid) testified as aforesaid (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinafter mentioned, and also of the said Thomas Vowler, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church at Brynford aforesaid, should belong to, be vested in, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph for the time being.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church at Brynford, in the parish of Holywell, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an Incumbent or perpetual Curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act; and that the right of presentation and nomination to the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the Bishop of St. Asaph for the time being, he being the person mentioned in such representation; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 29th day of March, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," and of all other powers in that behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Bradford, in the West Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate in or near Manchester-road, in the said parish of Bradford, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and of all other powers in this behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named or called, 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, Bradford;' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: commencing opposite the New Inn, in Tyrrell-street and proceeding north-easterly along the middle of Tyrrell-street, as far as Thornton-road, then proceeding westerly along the middle of Thornton-road, as far as Tumblinghill-street, then proceeding south-westerly along the middle of Tumblinghill-street, into Norcroft-road, then north-westerly along the middle of Norcroft-road, as far as Littlewood Beck, then proceeding south-westerly along the middle of Littlewood Beck, and also of the footpath over part of such beck, as far as Shearidge-lane, then south-easterly along the middle of Shearbridge-lane into Great Horton-road, then proceeding north-easterly along the middle of Great Horton-road, as far as Claremont, then south-easterly along the middle of Claremont into Lansdown-place, then proceeding north-easterly along the middle of Lansdown-place, as far as Edmond-street, then easterly along the middle of Edmond-street and Henry-street into Back-road, then proceeding southerly along the middle of Back-road into Bernard-street, then easterly along the middle of Bernard-street to Smith-street and north-easterly along the middle of Smith-street, into the Manchester-road, then northerly up the middle of the Manchester-road, as far as Croft-street, then proceeding north-easterly along the middle of Croft-street to Bowling Beck, then northerly up the middle of Bowling Beck, as far as the footpath to the eastward of Clarence-street, and along the middle of the said footpath as far as Lower King-street, then along the middle of Lower King-street into Union-street, then north-easterly along the middle of Union-street into Nelson-street, then northerly along the middle of Nelson-street, as far as Chapel-lane then proceeding westerly along the middle of Chapel-lane into Tyrrell-street, to the point opposite the New Inn, where the boundary line of the said district chapelry of Saint John, Bradford, commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be
