

session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act 'of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property belonging to the Prebend of Stoke Newington, in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested, in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property herein-after described, is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law; with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, formerly belonging to the said Prebend of Stoke Newington (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became vested in us on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the third day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, by the appointment of the Reverend John Lonsdale, the then prebendary, to the Bishoprick of Lichfield, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Stoke Newington, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," and of the nineteenth and twentieth sections of an Act, passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the extra parochial place called Ogle Hay, of the district chapelries of Walsall Wood, in the parish of Walsall, and of Stonnall, in the parish of Shenstone, and of the parishes of Norton Canes and Hammerwich, all in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate the whole of the said extra parochial place of Ogle Hay and certain contiguous portions of the said district chapelries of Walsall Wood and Stonnall, and of the said parishes of Norton Canes and Hammerwich, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Ogle Hay aforesaid, under the powers or authorities contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and in the nineteenth and twentieth sections of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Ogle Hay,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

"The boundary line of the said consolidated chapelry of Ogle Hay commences at the Catshill Toll-gate, in Icknield-street, by the canal, and proceeds north-westerly along the towing-path of the Wyrley and Essington Canal, as far as the weir that empties the spare water of the canal into the watercourse on Clayanger Common; then proceeds along the middle of such watercourse in
