"That the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and also Patron (in right of his see) of the parish church of the said parish of Norton Canes, of the Reverend John Hodges Sharwood, Master of Arts, Vicar and Incumbent of the parish church of the said parish of Walsall, and (as such Vicar) patron of the church of the said district chapelry of Walsall Wood, of the Reverend Robert William Essington, Master of Arts, Vicar and Incumbent of the parish church of the said parish of Shenstone, and (as such Vicar) patron of the church of the said district chapelry of Stonnall, and of Joseph Ashmall, of Ediall, in the parish of Saint Michael Lichfield, in the county of Stafford, William Stubbs, of Hammerwich aforesaid, William Middleton, also of Hammerwich, and John Forster, of Haunch Hall, in the parish of Longdon, in the said county of Stafford, patrons, in trust, of the parish church of the said parish of Hammerwich, have been severally obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Ogley Hay, as required by the Acts and Sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said John, Bishop of Lichfield and the said other persons, as such respective patrons as aforesaid, have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, John Hodges Sharwood, Robert William Essington, Joseph Ashmall, William Stubbs, William Middleton, and John Forster (as such respective patrons as aforesaid), testified as aforesaid (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinafter mentioned, and of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint James, at Ogley Hay aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield for the time being.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint James, at Ogley Hay, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an Incumbent or perpetual Curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the right of presentation and nomination to the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the Bishop of the diocese of Lichfield for the time being, he being the person mentioned in such representation; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 24th day of April, 1854.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Shinfield, in the county of Berks, and in the diocese of Oxford, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Lambwood Hill Common, in the said parish of Shinfield, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should consist of the westernmost part of the said
