

presentation to your Majesty in Council, that it appeared to them to be expedient, and they therefore humbly prayed, that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Michael, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Shrewsbury, in the said diocese of Lichfield, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Saint Michael, Shrewsbury;' and that the boundaries thereof should be such as were mentioned or described in the said representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners also represented that it appeared to them to be expedient that baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Michael Shrewsbury, and that the fees to arise therefrom, should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, your Majesty was graciously pleased by and with the advice of your Privy Council, to approve of the assignment of the said district, and to order that the same should be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of your Majesty's said Commissioners in respect of the solemnization of baptisms, churchings, and burials, and of the fees arising therefrom, should be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that having taken into consideration the present circumstances of the said district chapelry of Saint Michael Shrewsbury, it appears to your Majesty's said Commissioners to be expedient that banns of marriage should hereafter be published, and that marriages should hereafter be solemnized in the said church of Saint Michael Shrewsbury, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent of such church for the time being, and that a Supplemental Order for such purpose should be made pursuant to the provisions of the fourth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act concerning banns and marriages in certain district churches or chapels.'

"That the consent of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section lastly hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is by this supplemental Order ordered, that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages in the church of Saint Michael Shrewsbury, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this supplemental Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
