AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of June, 1854.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and also of the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Bambrough, otherwise Bamburgh, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church situate at Beadnell, in the said parish of Bamburgh, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and also in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district (which is to comprise the townships of Beadnell, Swinhoe, and Tuggal, and such portions of the townships of Preston and Chathill as are within the said parish of Bamburgh) should be named or called "The District Chapelry of Beadnell," and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: On the east by the German Ocean, on the south by the parish of Embleton, on the west by the parish of Ellingham, and on the north-west and north by the remaining part of the parish of Bamburgh, from which the said district chapelry of Beadnell is separated by the boundary lines which divide the townships of Newham and Fleatham from the said township of Swinhoe and the township of North Sunderland from other part of the said township of Swinhoe and from the township of Beadnell, as such district chapelry of Beadnell is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials, should be solemnized or performed in the said church at Beadnell aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should belong and be paid to the incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to
