

county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, at Combe Down, in the said parish of Monkton Combe (which said church was built by subscription under the provisions of the Act secondly hereinafter mentioned), under and by virtue of the power and authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' in conjunction with the provisions contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to make further provision, and to amend and render more effectual three Acts passed in the fifty-eighth and fifty-ninth years of His late Majesty, and in the third year of His present Majesty, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and of all other powers or authorities in this behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Combe Down,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—commencing at the north-eastern corner of a close of land called Upper Lawn, No. 187 on the title commutation map of the said parish of Monkton Combe, adjoining the road dividing the said parish from the parish of Lyncombe and Widcombe, in the county of Somerset; then southward along the middle of the lane bounding the eastern side of the same close to the south-eastern corner thereof; then south-westerly along the north side of the close of land, No. 161 on the said map, to the western boundary of the said last-mentioned close; then south-easterly along the western boundary of such close and of a close of land, No. 160 on the same map; then south-westerly along the northern boundary of the close of land, No. 155 on the same map, and south-easterly along the western boundary of the said last-mentioned close to the point where it adjoins a close of land, No. 153 on the same map; then south-westerly along the northern boundary of the said last-mentioned close, into the lane or road leading to Brass Knocker Hill, No. 300 on the same map; then along the middle of the same lane or road to the south-eastern corner of the close of land, No. 120 (B) on the same map; then proceeding in a westerly direction along the southern boundary of the said last-mentioned close to the eastern boundary of the close of land, No. 121 (B) on the same map; then southerly along such eastern boundary to the foot-bridge over the pond, called Tucking Mill Pond, No. 117 on the same map, where the said parish of Monkton Combe joins the parish of South Stoke, in the said county of Somerset; then in a westerly direction by the said parish of South Stoke to the point where the same joins the parish of Lyncombe and Widcombe; and then north-westerly and easterly along the boundary line separating the said parish of Lyncombe and Widcombe from the said parish of Monkton Combe, to the point at the north-eastern corner of the said close, No. 187, where the boundary line of the said district chapelry of Combe Down commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed in the said church of the Holy Trinity, at Combe Down aforesaid; and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections herebefore mentioned; and also the consent of the Reverend Henry Calverley, Clerk, Master of Arts, vicar and incumbent of the vicarage and parish church of the said parish of South Stoke, and (as such vicar) patron of the parish church of the said parish of Monkton Combe, and also patron of the said church, called Trinity Church, at Combe Down aforesaid; and likewise the consent of the Reverend George William Newnham, Clerk, Master of Arts, incumbent of the said parish church of Monkton Combe; and also the consents of the Reverend William Batchellor, Bachelor of Arts, of Kingsdon, in the said county of Somerset, Clerk; The Reverend Francis Lockety, Bachelor of Laws, of Swainswick, in the said county of Somerset, Clerk; and Richard Heywood, of Bath Easton, in the same county, Esquire, as the majority of the subscribers entitled to elect the trustees of Trinity Church, at Combe Down aforesaid, have been respectively obtained thereto as required by the Act and section secondly herebefore mentioned; in testimony whereof the said Richard, Bishop of Bath and Wells, Henry Calverley, George William Newnham, William Batchellor, Francis Lockety, and Richard Heywood, have respectively signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church or chapel of the Holy Trinity at Combe Down, in the parish of Monkton Combe, be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, and the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of July, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth
