

and Lewisham, to the end of the Collin's Estate, where it meets the glebe; thence southerly along the division between the glebe and the said Collin's Estate to Lee-lane; thence westerly along the middle of Lee-lane, as far as the wall, which divides Mr. Lawrence's house and grounds from the nursery ground occupied by — Marsh; thence southerly along Mr. Lawrence's boundary wall to a point where it is intersected by the enclosure fence, at the rear of the houses in Albert-place; thence westerly to the rear of the houses in Dacre-place; thence southerly in a right line with the end of the house at the eastern extremity of Royal Oak-place to a point in the centre of the road, opposite to the end of Church-street; thence westerly along the middle of Dacre-street to a point in that street, about one hundred and thirty-one feet from the middle of Church-street; and thence by a line to be drawn straight southerly to the centre of the turnpike road leading from London to Maidstone; thence south-easterly along the middle of that road to a point on the south side of the county bridge, at the bottom of Lee Park; and from such point southerly by an imaginary line on the western side, and at the distance of three hundred and ninety-six feet throughout, from the centre of Burnt Ash-lane to the extreme southern boundary of the said parish of Lee; then proceeding easterly and northerly along the boundary line separating that parish from the parish of Bromley on the south, and the hamlet of Mottingham, and parish of Eltham, on the east, as far as the point opposite to the Tiger's Head, where the boundary line of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Lee Park, commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed in the said church, called Christ Church, Lee Park aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church or chapel, called Christ Church, situate in Lee Park, in the parish of Lee, be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms and churchings, in the said church, and of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty by and with the like advice is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.
