

were mostly corroborated, and I consider reliance may be placed on his information generally, considering the means his station in life afforded of enabling him to obtain it. At the request of Lord Raglan I have sent him on shore to act as a guide to the Army on their approach to the environs of Sevastopol.

take up a position to the south of the port of Sevastopol, and the fleet will move so as to meet their arrival there.

I have, &c.,
