By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the 54th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter 159, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of the several ports, harbours, roadsteads, sounds, channels, bays, and navigable rivers, in the United Kingdom, and of His Majesty's docks, dockyards, arsenals, wharfs, moorings, and stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose," it is enacted (among other things) that no person or persons shall take any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, of any port, harbour, or haven of this kingdom, from which the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom for the time being shall find it necessary for the protection of such port, harbour, or haven, or the works thereof, by order under their hands, or the hand of their Secretary, and published in the London Gazette, shall prohibit the taking or removing of such shingle or ballast, upon pain of forfeiting for every such offence the sum of Ten Pounds.

And whereas we, as Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, have found it necessary for the protection of the harbours of Christchurch, in the county of Southampton, and of Poole, in the county of Dorset, to prohibit the taking or removing of any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks at Hengistbury Head, and from a point on the west of Hengistbury Head where an ancient work, called the "Double Ditches," abuts on the sea cliff; and thence easterly to another point on the shore where the same is intersected by the channel or entrance to Christchurch Harbour, at or near the Coast Guard Station or Haven House at Muddiford. And we do therefore hereby order, that no person or persons shall take or remove any ballast or shingle from such shores or banks, or any portion of such shores or banks aforesaid.

Given under our hands, this 18th day of October, 1854.

*R. S. Dundas,
Peter Richards,*

Two of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Independent Chapel, situate at Earl Shelton, in the parish of Earl Shelton, in the county of Leicester, in the district of Hinckley Union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 14th day of October, 1854, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 16th day of October, 1854.
Benjamin Law, Superintendent Registrar.

CONTRACT FOR FISHING GEAR AND TWINE.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, October 17, 1854.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 7th day of November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with

FISHING GEAR AND TWINE, &c.

Patterns of the articles may be seen at Her Majesty's Dock Yard at Deptford, and a form of the tender may be obtained at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Fishing Gear, &c.," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR COALS FOR TRINCOMALEE.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, October 17, 1854.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday, the 7th November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store at Her Majesty's Naval Yard at Trincomalee

600 TONS OF SOUTH WALES COALS, Fit for the service of Her Majesty's Steam Vessels:

The conditions of the contract and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Coals," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR RYE.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, October 19, 1854.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 28th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford and Plymouth, the undermentioned quantities of

RYE; viz.:

Deptford, 200 quarters; half to be delivered in fourteen days, and the remainder in fourteen days afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

No. 21614.

B

Plymouth, 200 quarters; half to be delivered in fourteen days, and the remainder in fourteen days afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

Tenders may be made for the whole, or any portion of the above quantities; and every tender must specify in words, as well as in figures, the price at which the Rye may be offered.

Samples (not less than 4 quarts), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, at the Victualling Yard, at Plymouth, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool.

The conditions of the contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, at the said Victualling Yard, and at Liverpool.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Rye," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.

CONTRACT FOR SHOES FOR THE SEAMEN OF HER MAJESTY'S NAVY.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, October 19, 1854.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 2nd November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth, the undermentioned

SHOES:

Shoes, 48,000 pairs, Deptford; 36,000 pairs, Gosport; 16,000 pairs, Plymouth; one-fourth of each to be delivered in two months, and the remaining three-fourths of each in three months afterwards, in equal monthly proportions, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

No tender will be received for a less quantity than 4000 pairs for each place.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

Patterns of the shoes may be seen at the said office.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, and at the said Victualling Yards.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an Agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Shoes," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.

If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and columns of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Eleven in the Forenoon and Three in the Afternoon, two clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
