

Majesty's Dock Yard at Deptford, and a form of the tender may be obtained at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Fishing Gear, &c.," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR BED CASES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, October 31, 1854.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 9th November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford:

Bed Cases, 20,000 number, half to be delivered in two months and the remainder in two months afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the parties tendering.

Their lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only, as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

No tender will be received for a less quantity than 2,000.

A pattern of the article, and the conditions of the revised contract may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

CONTRACT FOR RYE.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, October 30, 1854.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 9th November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Plymouth:

Rye, 600 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

Tenders may be made for the whole, or any portion of the above quantities; and every tender must specify in words, as well as in figures, the price at which the Rye may be offered.

Samples (not less than 2 quarts), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, at the Victualling Yard, at Plymouth, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol, or to the Agent for Transports at Leith.

The conditions of the contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, at the said Victualling Yard, and at Liverpool, Bristol and Leith.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Rye," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.
