And whereas by another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to limit the time for proceeding to election in counties and boroughs in England and Wales, and for polling at elections for the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and for other purposes;" it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, hereafter, on petition from the justices in quarter sessions assembled of any county, riding, parts, or division

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Monmouth in quarter sessions assembled the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the present polling places for the said county, that is to say: Abergavenny, Chepstow, Monmouth, Newport, Pontypool, the Rock Inn, in the parish of Bedwelty, and Usk, are insufficient in number, and that it would be expedient that the places hereinafter mentioned should be polling places for the said county, and also representing that it would be expedient that the polling place called the Rock Inn, in the parish of Bedwelty, should cease to be a polling place; and that Newbridge, in the parish of Mynyddyslwyn, in the said county, should be a polling place in lieu thereof, and praying that Her Majesty would be pleased to declare that Castletown in the parish of Marshfield, Magor Croes-y-Keilog in the parish of Llanvrechva, Tredegar in the parish of Bedwelty, Ragland, Trelleck, and Cross Ash in the parishes of Lantillio Crossenny and Skenfretth, shall be polling places for the said county; and that the Rock Inn, in the parish of Bedwelty, shall cease to be a polling place for the said county; and that Newbridge, in the parish of Mynyddyslwyn, shall be substituted as a polling place in lieu thereof.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said petition into consideration, doth by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order and direct that Castletown in the parish of Marshfield Magor, Croes-y-Keilog in the parish of Llanvrechva, Tredegar in the parish of Bedwelty, Ragland, Trelleck, and Cross Ash in the parishes of Lantillio Crossenny and Skenfretth, shall be polling places for the said county of Monmouth; and further that the Rock Inn, in the parish of Bedwellty, shall cease to be a polling place for the said county; and that Newbridge, in the parish of Mynyddyslwyn, shall be substituted as a polling place in lieu thereof; and further that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

(Amendment of Acts—Further Powers and Remedies.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to amend, extend, and enlarge, and also to consolidate the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the 53rd year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled, "An Act to insure the proper and careful manufacturing of Fire-arms in England, and for making provisions for proving the Barrels of such Fire-arms," and of another Act, passed in the 55th year of the same reign, for amending the first-mentioned Act, or to repeal all or some of the said powers and provisions, and to enact more extensive and effectual powers and provisions in lieu thereof, and to confer upon the guardians, trustees, and wardens of the Gun Barrel Proof House, of the town of Birmingham, and the Company of Gunmakers of the city of London, new and further powers for proving, and marking, and for compelling the due proving and marking of gun barrels, chambers, cylinders, breeches, and all such other portions of guns, pistols, and all other descriptions of small arms, whether breech loading, revolving, or otherwise, as ought to be proved and marked for the purposes of securing the safe use thereof, and also to provide further and more efficient remedies, penalties, and provisions than those contained in the said Acts, in cases of offences committed against the provisions thereof, or against the provisions of the said intended Act, and also to make further provisions for the detection and punishment of all such offences.

And by the said intended Act it is proposed to authorise reduced scales of proofs to be made of certain descriptions of fire-arms, and also scales of second proofs of fire-arms in any progressive state of manufacture, such proofs to be authenticated by new marks to be placed upon such fire-arms under the authority of the said intended Act, and to authorise the taking of such fees and charges for such authentication as shall be fixed by the said intended Act.

And by the said intended Act it is proposed to empower the said guardians, trustees, and wardens to hold in their corporate name lands and hereditaments for the purposes of the said Acts, and to use a common seal, and to vest in them all lands and hereditaments, or rights and interests therein, now held by trustees for the said guardians, trustees, and wardens.

And notice is hereby also given, that in case the said intended Act shall be introduced into Parliament upon petition, printed copies of the same will be deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 30th day of December next.

Dated this 7th day of November, 1854.
