

diseases to be put in force, is in force throughout the whole of Great Britain :

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and Vestry Clerks of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation, stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the hereinafter mentioned places :

And whereas Her Majesty in Council was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the eighteenth of October, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be respectively taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth of November instant; and such Orders have been published in the London Gazette; and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the above recited Act.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued, in the undermentioned places, as follows, viz. :

In the burial-ground of ST. GEORGE THE MARTYR QUEEN SQUARE, from and after the first April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

In the Quakers' Burial-ground in Long-lane, in the parish of BERMONDSEY, from and after the first June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

In the vaults under the church of ST. PETER BETHNAL GREEN, from and after the twenty-fourth of this instant November, and in the churchyard of the same, from and after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five; and that in the meantime no more than one body should be buried in any grave in the said churchyard.

In the church of ST. MARY STOKE NEWINGTON, and in Abney Chapel Burial-ground in that parish, from and after the twenty-fourth of this instant November; that in the churchyard of Saint Mary Stoke Newington, no burial take place within twenty feet of any dwelling-house; and that (except in existing private vaults) burials should be discontinued in the said churchyard from and after the first August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of November, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the "burial of the dead in the metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require ;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Orders in Council of the 8th of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and eighth of June and eighteenth of October last, to direct that burials should be discontinued in the undermentioned burial grounds and churchyard ;

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has made representations stating that he is of an opinion that the time for closing the said burial-grounds and churchyard may be extended ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued in the said burial-grounds and churchyard, as follows ; viz. :

In the new burial-ground or cemetery belonging to the parish of St. Giles-in-the-Fields, from and after the twenty-fourth of this instant November, instead of from the eighth of August last ;

In the upper burial-ground of the parish of Putney, and in the churchyard of the parish of St. Luke, Charlton, in the county of Kent, from and after the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, instead of from the first of December next ;

In the Roman Catholic Burial-ground of St. John, in Duncan-terrace, in the parish of St. Mary Islington, from and after the thirty-first of December next, instead of from the twenty-eighth of October last.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of November, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial "of the dead in England, beyond the limits "of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification ; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require ;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Orders in Council of the eleventh August and thirteenth September last, to direct that burials
