"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Paul, at Woodford Bridge aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the church of Saint Paul, situate at Woodford Bridge, in the parish of Woodford, be accordingly made, and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, in the said church, and the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty by and with the like advice is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of December, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual "an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, "for building and promoting the building of "additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An "Act to make better provision for the assignment "of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels "augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of "Queen Anne, and for other purposes," and of all other powers in such behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Lowestoft, in the county of Suffolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate in the said parish of Lowestoft, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An 'Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, 'passed in the last session of Parliament, for 'building and promoting the building of additional 'churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act 'to make better provision for the assignment of 'ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of 'Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and of all other powers in this behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named 'The District Chapelry 'of Saint John Lowestoft,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—On the south by the parishes of Carlton Colville, and Kirtley, on the east by the sea, and on the north and west by the remaining part of the said parish of Lowestoft, from which the said district chapelry is separated by a line commencing on the sea beach, at a point opposite the eastern end of the fence wall dividing the properties of Samuel Morton Peto, Esquire, and Edmund Norton, Esquire, then proceeding westerly along such fence as far as the turnpike-road to Lowestoft Old Town, and along the middle of that road north-easterly to the northern side of the Prairie, then north-westerly in a straight line along the said Prairie and across a field belonging to W. V. Barnard, Esquire, to the north-western corner thereof, thence westerly along the northern and southerly for about one hundred and ten yards of the western fence of the adjoining field as far as Chapel-lane, again westerly along the middle of Chapel-lane in Rotterdam-road, then southerly along the middle of that road as far as a private road leading to cottages belonging to Edward Leathes, Esquire, and then proceeding along the middle of that road westerly as far as the said cottages and including such cottages within the district, to proceed therefrom in a straight line southwesterly to the boundary line of the parish of Lowestoft, as the said district chapelry of Saint John Lowestoft, is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint John, at Lowestoft aforesaid; and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto
