FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1855.

War Department, February 7, 1855.

HIS Grace the Duke of Newcastle has received a Despatch and its Enclosure, of which the following are copies, addressed to His Grace by Field-Marshal the Lord Raglan, G.C.B. :

Before Sevastopol,

MY LORD DUKE, January 16, 1855.

I HAVE the honour to lay before your Grace the copy of a Despatch from Lieutenant Colonel Simmons, which he wrote by desire of Omer Pasha, expressing his Highness' approbation of the services of Major Bent, of the Royal Engineers, and the detachment of Sappers which I lent him in the summer; his regret at the loss of Lieutenant Burke, of the Royal Engineers, and his high sense of the conduct and exertions of Lieutenant Glyn, of the Royal Navy, of His Serene Highness Prince Ernest of Saxe Leiningen, and of the detachment of Seamen of Her Majesty's Fleet, employed in the construction of the bridge across the Danube, the success of which he attributes in a great measure to their well-planned dispositions.

Colonel Simmons, your Grace will perceive, has further been desired by Omer Pasha to say, that it would be very gratifying to him if Her Majesty should be graciously pleased to reward these Officers for the able services they have rendered to the Ottoman Army and the common cause.

I think it right to mention that the Honourable Major Gage, of the Royal Horse Artillery, was the officer who conducted these detachments to Roustchouk from Varna. I appointed him to this duty, having previously sent him to examine the armament at the former place, and being satisfied that the employment of his services on the occasion would be advantageous.

I beg your Grace will be so good as to obtain Her Majesty's permission for Private Andrew Anderson, of the Royal Sappers and Miners, to accept and wear the decoration of the 4th class of the Order of Medjidie, in consideration of his distinguished gallantry.

I have, &c.
RAGLAN.

His Grace the Duke of Newcastle,
&c. &c. &c.

Enclosure.

MY LORD, Varna, January 8, 1855.

HIS Highness Omer Pasha has requested me to write to your Lordship to return his best thanks for the services rendered to his army by Major Bent, of the Royal Engineers, and the detachment of Sappers under his command.

His Highness desires me to express his regret at the losses which have been sustained by this small detachment, who, under the direction of Major Bent, have well sustained the character of the British army.

His Highness has already expressed to your Lordship his regret at the loss of Lieutenant Burke, of the Royal Engineers, who his Highness considers to have been an officer of much merit.

His Highness desires me to inform your Lordship that he has done himself the honour to write to the Turkish Ambassador at the Court of St. James', expressing the desire of His Majesty the Sultan that Private Andrew Anderson, of the Royal Sappers and Miners, may receive and wear the decoration of the 4th class of the order of Medjidie, in commemoration of his gallantry in recovering the body of Lieutenant Burke, after he was killed at the passing of the Danube on the 12th of July last. In the meantime, he has presented Private Anderson with the decoration, and trusts your Lordship will allow him to wear it until the commands of Her Majesty may be received.

His Highness further desires me to express to your Lordship his entire approbation of the manner in which Major Bent has conducted his duties.

He desires me to inform your Lordship that this officer showed great energy in his endeavours to enter Silistria before the siege was raised; that he subsequently showed great gallantry at the passage of the Danube, when he was the first to land on the left bank, and covered the landing of the Turkish troops with a detachment of riflemen, who maintained their ground under a very heavy fire until the disembarkation of the supports was effected.

Major Bent and his Sappers were subsequently of great service in throwing up the tête de pont at Georgevo, and in the construction of the bridge across the Danube.

His Highness desires to take this opportunity of expressing to your Lordship his high sense of the services rendered by Lieutenant Glyn, R.N., and H. S. H. Prince Ernest of Saxe Leiningen, with the detachment of sailors of Her Majesty's fleet under their command, in the construction of the bridge across the Danube.

His Highness considers that the success of the construction of this bridge is in great measure attributable to their well-planned dispositions, which, although executed with limited means, proved fully effective to resist the storms and strong currents of the Danube.

He desires me to say that he is fully satisfied with the zeal and indefatigable energy of this detachment of Her Majesty's fleet under the able direction of Lieutenant Glyn, whom he considers a very promising officer, and entirely worthy of the confidence of your Lordship.

His Highness desires me to add, that it would be very gratifying to him if Her Majesty could in some way reward these officers for the able services they have rendered to the Ottoman army and the common cause.

I am, &c.,
(Signed) J. L. A. SIMMONS,
Lieutenant-Colonel.

Field-Marshal Lord Raglan, G.C.B., &c. &c. &c.

By the QUEEN.

CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.—ELECTION and INVESTITURE of the EARLS of CARLISLE, ELLESMERE, and ABERDEEN.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, 7th February, 1855.

A Chapter of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the Knights Companions hereafter named, in their mantles and collars, assembled in St. George's Hall, viz.:

The Marquess of Exeter, the Duke of Buccleugh, the Marquess of Lansdowne, the Marquess of Salisbury, Earl De Grey, the Marquess of Abercorn, the Duke of Bedford, the Earl of Clarendon, Earl of Spencer, and Earl Fitzwilliam, attended by the Officers of the Order, viz.:

The Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate; the Lord Bishop of Oxford, Chancellor; the Honourable and Reverend Gerald Wellesley, Dean of Windsor, Register; Sir Charles George Young, Knight, Garter; and Sir Augustus William James Clifford, Baronet, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

At three o'clock the Knights Companions were called over by Garter, when (Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert having passed into the Throne Room) they proceeded, with the Officers of the Order, through the Grand Reception Room into the Throne Room, the Register remaining at the door, not having been sworn.

The Chancellor then signified to the Sovereign, the Honourable and Reverend Gerald Wellesley, Dean of Windsor, attended at the door, and humbly prayed to be admitted to take the Oath of Office as Register of this Most Noble Order; whereupon, by Her Majesty's command, the Register, wearing his mantle, was introduced between Garter and Black Rod, the former carrying on a velvet cushion the gold chain and badge of the office of Register. The Register, kneeling on the left hand of the Sovereign, and holding in his hand the Holy Gospels, the Oath was administered to him by the Chancellor; and he was then invested by the Sovereign with the gold chain and badge of his office; and, having had the honour to kiss Her Majesty's hand, retired to his place at the bottom of the table.

The Chancellor then signified to the Chapter Her Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that the vacant Stalls in the Royal Chapel of Saint George, at Windsor, be filled; and as by the Statutes none but a Knight can be elected, the Right Honourable George William Frederick, Earl of Carlisle, was introduced by Garter and Black Rod, and knighted by Her Majesty with the sword of state; and his Lordship, having kissed the Sovereign's hand, retired.

The Right Honourable Francis, Earl of Ellesmere, was next introduced, and having been knighted, with the same ceremony, retired.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the elections, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were by him presented to the Sovereign, who commanded him to declare, and he accordingly did declare, that the Right Honourable George William Frederick, Earl of Carlisle, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, His Lordship was received at the door of the Chapter-room by Earl Spencer and Earl Fitzwilliam, the two junior Knights Companions present, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion), and by Black Rod. The Earl of Carlisle, kneeling near the Sovereign, Garter on his knee presented the Garter; and Her Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness Prince Albert and the Marquess of Exeter, the two senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on his Lordship's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the Ribband and George; and Her Majesty, assisted as before, put the same over his Lordship's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition. The Earl of Carlisle then again kissed Her Majesty's hand; and, having received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, retired.

The Chapter then proceeded to a Second Election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were presented to the Sovereign, when the Right Honourable Francis, Earl of Ellesmere, was, by Her Majesty's command, declared duly elected, and his Lordship was introduced and invested with the Garter and the Ribband
 and George with the like ceremony.

The Chapter then proceeded to a Third Election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were presented to the Sovereign, when the Right Honourable George, Earl of Aberdeen (Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle), was, by Her Majesty's command,
 declared duly elected, and his Lordship was introduced and invested with the Garter and the Ribband
 and George with the like ceremony.

The Chapter being ended, Garter, by Her Majesty's command, again called over the Knights Companions, who, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign with the usual reverence.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, February 7, 1855.

The Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been graciously pleased, by letters patent under Her royal sign manual and the Great Seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to installations, and to grant unto the Right Honourable George William Frederick, Earl of Carlisle, the Right Honourable Francis, Earl of Ellesmere, and the Right Honourable George, Earl of Aberdeen, Knights of the said Most Noble Order, and duly invested with the ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if they had been formally installed, any decree rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled
 "An Act to amend the laws concerning the "burial of the dead in the metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Ma-to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish;

And whereas an Order, dated the fifteenth of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, made under the last-recited Act, directing the provisions of that Act for the prevention of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases to be put in force, is in force throughout the whole of Great Britain;

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secre-

 and Vestry Clerk of the parish of Streatham, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation, stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in Union Chapel and burial-ground, Brixton Hill, in the said parish;

And whereas Her Majesty in Council was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the eleventh of December last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be respectively taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirtieth of that month; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette;
 and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the above recited Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be dis-
