

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday August 23. to Thursday August 26. 1686.

Madrid, Aug. 15.
THE Count d'Aquilar, Admiral of the Spanish Fleet, has sent an Officer hither, to acquaint this Court that he had met the Gallions, so that we expect every hour to hear of their arrival in Cadiz, or in some other Port of this Kingdom. The last week arrived here an Express from Rome, being dispatched by the Count de Borromeo, Ambassador of this Crown, to give his Catholick Majesty an account of the difficulties that had hapned about presenting the Genet on St. Peter's Eve; He was sent back with the King's Orders upon this Incident. The Duke de Medina Celi, who came hither some days ago, is gone to his house at Guadalaxa, without appearing at Court.

Venice, Aug. 16. We have Advice by the way of Otranto, That the Forces of this State have taken Lepanto and Petraxo, of which we expect a Confirmation.

From the Polish Camp at Tlumaes on the Frontiers of Moldavia, July 18. Our march has been hindered for some days by a difference arisen between Mohila and Appasti, who command 2 Bodies of Cossacks; It went so far, That they not only fought themselves, but had almost engaged their Troops in their Quarrel, which being at last ended by the King's Interposition, the Army will decamp this day, and enter into Moldavia. The King has written to the Hospodars of that Country and of Valachia, to have their Forces in a readiness to join him, as they have promised they shall do. We have Advice that Sultan Galga who had passed through Valachia with a Body of Tartars in his march towards Hungary, is recalled by the Cham to defend his Country against the Moscovites.

Lemberg, July 30. The Moscovites have published at Smolensko, with much Solemnity, the Treaty of Alliance lately concluded between the Czars and this Crown; Their Forces advance towards the Boristenes in a very considerable Body, and will, doubtless, give the Tartars a great diversion. The King of Poland marches towards the Frontiers of Moldavia, the Hospodars of that Countrey and of Valachia have, we are told, promised to send 14000 Men to join the Army of this Crown. We are expecting the Return of our Ambassadors from Moscovy.

From the Imperial Camp before Buda, August 15. The 13th, towards Evening, the Duke of Lorraine, having received Advice that the Enemy, to the Number of 40000 Men, approached towards our Camp, with a design to force one of our Quarters, and to put some Succors into the Town, caused, with consent of the Elector of Bavaria, all the Horse and Foot to march out of the Lines, except 20000 Men that were left to continue the Attacks, and guard the several Posts and Avenues of the Camp, and at the same time the Commissary General distributed to the Cavalry, Oats and Forage for four day; The Army was drawn up in order of Battel, the Count de Dunewaldt, General of the Horse, commanding the Left Wing, composed of the Imperial Regiments of Caprara, Palli, Taff, Lodron, Neuburg,

Furstemberg, Stirum, Serau and Schultz, with 8 Squadrons of Hussars, and Major-General Hueller the Right, composed of the same number of Regiments, as well Imperialists as Bavarians and Saxons, and 4000 Heydukes and Hofliers being appointed for the Vanguard. The 14th, by break of day, we were informed that the Enemy had formed a Body of 4000 Janitaries, and as many Spahis, of their best Troops, who begun about 5 in the morning to pass behind the Hills, making a Meen as if they would approach in several Parties, by the same wayes which they took to put Succors into the Town two years ago; while the main of their Army defended in great Bodies into the Plain. The Duke of Lorraine observing the Enemies motion, and lining by the Noise he heard, that the Heydukes and Hussars of the Vanguard were engaged with the 8000 Janitaries and Spahis's before-mentioned, ordered the Right Wing to advance to their Assistance; The Fight was there very sharp, and the Success doubtful, till Major-General Hueller and General Petebasi came in with the Troops of their Divisions to support the Heydukes, who though they fought very bravely, yet being attacked in Front and Flank by the Turks exceeding them in Number by one half, were forced to give way, but upon this Succor, the Fight was vigorously renewed by the Christians, who charged the Enemy with that Courage, that the Spahis's not being able to bear their Shock, fell into great Confusion, and abandoned the Janitaries; These were provided each man with 3 Grenadoes, and with Pickaxes, Shovels, and other Instruments, to level our Works. After this, the Turks cauled 10 or 12000 Men to advance against our Left Wing, commanded by General Dunewaldt, who thought fit to move a little, that he might give time to the Troops of the Right Wing, who returned from the Defeat of the Troops designed to succor the Town, to retake their Ground, after which the whole Army advanced towards the Enemy, who thereupon retired to their main Body; Our Troops pursued them, and skirmishing with the Spahis's that were left to cover their Retreat, killed 142, and took 27 Prisoners, and would have gone farther, had not the Duke of Lorraine commanded General Dunewaldt to return, and join the main Body. Soon after the Enemy came down the second time from the Hill, and advanced towards our Right Wing, but after some Skirmishing retired again, though not without considerable Loss. The Night coming on, the Duke of Lorraine drew the whole Army again within the Lines, and the several Regiments returned to their former Posts. Of the Enemy, 3000 Janitaries and 1200 Spahis's were killed in this days Action, and 350 Prisoners, with 200 Horses, 8 pieces of Cannon, and 24 Colours or Standards taken; On our side the Count de Lodron, Lieutenant-Colonel of Croats, the Serjeant Major of Caprara, a Captain of Dunewaldt, and about Fifty six Common Soldiers were killed. During the Fight, the Besieged made a Sally, but were immediately beaten back. The Army being returned within the Lines, all our Cannon were thrice discharged, and the next day the Colours we had taken, and the Heads of a great many Turks were planted on the Walls of the Towns as Marks of the Victory we had obtained. The Prisoners report, that the Grand Visier was greatly incensed against the Serafquier because of this ill Success, and that he had treated him with all the marks of Ager and Contempt. They say farther, that the Ottoman Army cannot subsist long on this side of Alba Regalis, for that the Imperial Horse and the Hussars have destroyed all the Corn and Forage.

Vienna, Aug. 18. We have an Account from the Camp before Buda, That the Enemy shewed themselves the 13th Instant drawn up in Battalia, but that towards the Evening they retired again to their Camp, That about the same time the Duke of Lorraine was informed by a Deserter, That the Turks intended the next day to attack the Imperial Camp

Camp on the side of the Bavarian Quarter, upon which, and the other Advices his Highness had received, the Army was drawn out of the Lines. The 14th, by break of day, the Enemy appeared again in Battalia, and at the same time 2000 Jansaries, who were provided with Grenadoes, Shovels and Pickaxes, and 6000 Spahis, all chosen men, were detached, with Orders to force the Bavarian Quarter, and to put Succor into the Town, which the Duke of Lorraine having Notice of, he commanded General Dunnevalde to post himself with nine Regiments on the Left, and Major-General Heusser to secure a Hill on the Right. The Hussars were the first that engaged with the Enemy, and were very hard beset, but being assisted by Major-General Heusser, they charged the Spahis with that vigor, that they abandoned the Jansaries, and fled. The Imperialists took 8 pieces of Cannon, 17 Colours, and 200 Prisoners, and of the Enemy between 2 and 3000 were slain upon the place, and that with the loss only of 50 men on the part of the Christians, among which were the Count de Lodron and the Serjeant-Major of Caprara. After this success the Elector of Bavaria and the Duke of Lorraine advanced with the whole Army towards the Enemy, who thereupon, after some skirmishes, retired by the favour of the night; and the Imperialists returned into their Camp, declaring to the besieged the Victory they had obtained by a treble discharge of all their Cannon, and by planting the Colours they had taken on the Walls of the Town. The Besieged had during the Action made a furious Sally, but were presently repulsed. The Siege is carried on with all imaginable vigor. The Miners are again at Work, and we expect in a day or two to hear of another, and we hope the last, General Assault. This Victory was obtained on the same day that a strict and general Fast was observed here by the Court and the whole City.

Hamburg, Aug. 19. The last week the Regent Burghermasters called together all the Burgers, to communicate to them several important Advices which they had received concerning the Consequences which the Differences depending between the Duke of Zell and this City may have, if not ended by a speedy Accommodation; The Meeting lasted twosdays, but after divers Disputes and a great deal of Heat among themselves, they separated, without taking any other Resolution, than to refer the Matter to the Council of Thirty. The Electoral Prince of Saxony is expected here in two or three days from Holland; He intends, it's said, to go to Gottorp, where the Court of Denmark still is to be present at the Caroussel that is preparing there. The Letters from Moscow of the 3d of the last Month inform us, That an Envoy was arrived there from the Cham of Tartary, who had represented to the Ministers of that Court, That the Prince his Master would quill all his ancient Pretensions upon the Moscovites, and enter into a strict League with them, in case the Czars would break the Treaty they had lately concluded with the Crown of Poland, but the Czars, far from hearkning to this Proposition, were so offended at it, that they had caused a Guard to be set upon the Tartars; And were sending Commissioners to Poland, to regulate several matters concerning the execution of the said Treaty. Their Troops were marching at the same time to fall into the Country of the Crim Tartars.

Brussels, Aug. 30. The Letters from Vienna of the 18th instant give an account of the defeat of 8000 Turks who were detach'd to force the Imperial Camp on the side of the Bavarian Quarter, of which you will have the particulars from thence. It is said that the Grand Visier was so incensed against the Seraskier for this ill success, that at his return he spit in his face. There is a report that the Imperialists have defeated 15000 Turks in Croatia, but it comes not from authentick hands.

Hague, Aug. 30. The Letters from the Camp before Buda of the 15th Instant bring us the happy news of the defeat of 8000 Turks, who were commanded to attempt the Imperial Camp, and the taking of 8 pieces of Cannon, 17 Colours, and 200 prisoners.

Verfailles, Aug. 30. The King is perfectly well again, his Ague having quite left him. The Ambassadors of Siam have not yet had Audience; as was said, but it's believed they will now have it in a day or two. The Duke of Martemar, General of the Gallies of France, has been before Argiers, Tunis, and Tripoly, and is every day expected at Toulon.

Windsor, Aug. 22. His Majesty has named Dr. Thomas Carrwright, Dean of Rippon, to be Bishop of Chester; And Dr. Samuel Parker, Archdeacon of Canterbury, to be Bishop of Oxford, those Sees being vacant, the first by the death of Dr. John Pearson, and the last by the death of Dr. John Bell.

Windsor, Aug. 23. This day the King began a Progress towards the West; His Majesty lies this Night at the Duke of Somerset's House at Marleborough, and to morrow at the Duke of Beauforts at Badminton, and goes from thence to Bristol; On Friday, His Majesty will be at Bridgewater; On Saturday, at the Earl of Pembrook's at Wilton; On Sunday, at Southampton; And Monday, at Portsmouth; From whence His Majesty will return hither the day following.

Marlborough, August 23. This evening the King came to this place, the people every where, as His Majesty pass, expressing the greatest demonstrations of Duty and Joy.

Advertisements.

The Library of Mr. James Chamberlaine, late Senior Fellow of St. Johns College in Cambridge, together with Variety of Greek and Latin Fathers, Church History, Commentators Ancient and Modern, and other Books of Critical Learning, with a great Number of English Divinity, History, Humanity, in most Volumes, will be Exposed to Sale, by Auction, in Cookes-Row in Sturbridge-Fair, the 4th day of September next. Catalogues of which will be distributed from the Coffee-houses in Cambridge, to all Gentlemen Scholars, &c. the Week before the Sale.

William Grant of Broughton in Wiltshire, Soldier in Capt. Parsons's Company in His Majesties First Regiment of Foot-Guards, ran away from his Colours on Saturday last about 4 of the Clock in the morning, taking with him a Bay Stone-Horse near 14 hands high, with a black thorn Mane, short thick Neck, black Bob-tail, the near Foot behind white, a small Star in his Forehead, full aged, and very slowe paced, with all his paces. He took with him besides, a black hunting Saddle, with small Holsters for Pocket-Pistols, turp'd up with green Velter and fring'd; A grey Coat (with which he was seen at Riding away) and a green Livery linc'd with gold colour, belonging to the said Captain. Whosoever can apprehend the said William Grant, and give Notice to the Guard at Whitehall, or the said Captains House in Gerrard-street, shall receive two Guineas Reward, besides his Charges born: And whosoever can make discovery of the said Horse, shall have his Charges born, and be very fully rewarded.

The 18th Instant, a Gold Watch, made by W. Crayle, with a black Cover studded with Gold; Also two Mens Pictures, one set in Gold, the other in a black wrought Case, both cover'd with Chryystal. A Gold Locket with a Chryystal over it, two Letters P. S. on the back-side. A Gold Seal, being a Coronet, two Gold Rings, the one had 8 Turky Stones with a Garnet in the middle, the other an Amethyst with two Silver Rings, tied all on a black satten Ribon. Whoever gives Notice of them to Mr. Haunum at the Pope's head Tavern in Moor-fields, shall have 5 l.

A Very fair House to be Lett, with Gardens and Orchards, with a quantity of Land to the value of 30 or 40 l. per Annum. It is called Pendhly in Blechingley Parish in Surrey, about 7 miles from Croyden. If any desire to be satisfi'd further, they may repair to Mr. John Ladyman Bookseller without Aldgate.

Lost or stole from Aply, the 11th Instant, a brown bay Gelding about 15 hands high, 7 years old, a black Mane, and black Bob-tail, a small snip on the Nose, a little white on the right foot behind, somewhat lame, handsome forward, but thin behind. Whoever gives Notice of the said Gelding to Mr. Thomas Rider at Aply aforesaid, or to Mr. Ralph Lecke in Bridges-street, Covent-Garden, Goldsmith, shall have a Guinea Reward.