fined to so much of that section as provides that "it shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts, or any eight or more of them, of whom the chiefs of each of the said Courts shall be three, from time to time to make all such general rules and orders for the effectual execution of the said Act, and of the intention and object thereof, and for fixing the costs to be allowed for and in respect of the matters therein contained, and the performance thereof, as in their judgment shall be necessary and proper;"

And that all the powers exerciseable by a master, or any number of masters, under any of the sections of the said Act, by such Order extended and applied to the said Court of Record for the hundred of Salford, shall, as regards matters to be done under the authority of this Order, be exerciseable and exercised by the Registrar of the said

Court, or his Deputy duly appointed;

And that all the powers exerciseable by a sheriff, under any of the sections of the said Act, by this Order extended and applied to the said Court of Record for the Hundred of Salford, shall, as regards matters to be done under the authority of this Order, be exerciseable and exercised by the Head Bailiff of the said Court, or his under bailiffs duly appointed.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

A T the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HEREAS by "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act, or of the rules to be made in pursuance thereof, shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England and Wales, and within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, such provisions and rules respectively shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order; and that any such Order may be in like manner, from time to time, altered and annulled:

And whereas, it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that all the provisions of the said Act should apply to the Courts of Record of the borough of Colchester, called the Law Hundred, and Foreign Courts.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, within one month after this Order shall have been published in the London Gazette, all the provisions of the said "Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," shall apply to the said Courts of Record of the borough of Colchester, called the Law Hundred, and Foreign Courts.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

A T the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act, or of the rules to be made in pursuance thereof, shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England and Wales, and within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette; such provisions and rules respectively shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order; and any such Order may be in like manner, from time to time, altered and annulled: and that in and by any such Order Her Majesty may direct by whom any powers or duties incident to the provisions applied under the said Act, or "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," shall and may be exercised with respect to matters in such Court or Courts, and may make any orders or regulations which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such Court or Courts the provisions so applied:

And whereas, it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that all the provisions of the said "Common Law Procedure Act, 1854" and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof, shall extend and apply to the Court of Record of the borough of Cambridge, called the Court of Pleas.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, within one month after this Order shall have been published in the London Gazette, all the provisions of the said "Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof, shall extend and apply to the said Court of Record of the borough of Cambridge, called the Court of Pleas.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to order, by and with the advice aforesaid, that the Court of Queen's Bench, being the Court of Error, from the said Court of Record, for the said borough of CAMBRIDGE, shall also be the Court of Appeal from the said Court for the purposes of the said Act, in reference to motions for new trials, or to enter verdicts or nonsuits.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

A T the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Report from the General Board of Health, dated the fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

"The General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of 'The Public Health Act, 1848,' have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the parish of Wilton, in the county of Wilts (the number of the said petitioners greatly exceeding thirty in the whole), directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, to visit the said parish, and to make inquiry and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial-grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any local Acts of Parliament in force within such parish,
