NOTICE TO MARINERS.

THE MINISTER OF MARINE

Gives notice to Mariners and others:

1st. That the iron pyramidal sea-buoy outside of the Slykgat of Goederede, is missing, probably occasioned by floating ice, and that as speedily as possible, in lieu thereof, a black globular buoy, of the largest size, with the word Goederede, in white painted letters round the top, will be stationed at the same place;

2nd. That the shallow, at the north-eastern point of the Bank Scheelhook, in the Goederede Sea Gat, having been found to extend further to the northward, has rendered it necessary to remove about  $1\frac{1}{2}$  cable lengths towards the north, the white buoy, No. 6, on the Northern Pampus, as also the inner white Ton, No. 7, by which means the first mentioned will now lie in 38, and the second in 43 palms, at ordinary low water.

To avoid this shallow at night, mariners are provisionally warned, when crossing the Northern Pampus, now not to keep the Light of Goederede, entirely red but rather white, on the western side.

The Hague, 12th March, 1855.

The Minister aforesaid.

(Signed) DE SMIT VAN DEN BROECKE.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto George Kirwan Carr, Esquire, Lieutenant-Colonel of the Sussex Royal Artillery Regiment of Militia, only surviving son and heir of the late Right Reverend Robert James Carr, D.D., Lord Bishop of Worcester, deceased, Her Majesty's royal licence and authority that he and his issue may take and henceforth use the surname of Lloyd, in addition to and after that of Carr, and that he and they may bear the arms of Lloyd quarterly in the first quarter with his and their own family arms, in compliance with a proviso in a certain deed of settlement of his paternal aunt, Dame Elizabeth-Ann Lloyd, of Lancing, in the county of Sussex, widow and relict of the late Sir James Martin Lloyd, of the same place, Baronet, deceased, and to manifest his grateful and affectionate respect for the said Dame Elizabeth-Ann Lloyd; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, March 22, 1854.

NOTICE is hereby given, to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now making for the intended distribution of proceeds arising from the Russian barque Carolina, captured on the 28th of April, 1854, by Her Majesty's ships Amphion and Cruiser.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named St. David's Congregational Church, situated at Wickham-terrace, Lewisham High-road, in the parish of Saint Paul, Deptford, in the county of Kent, in the district of Greenwich, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 20th day of March, 1855, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 23rd day of March, 1855.

Saml. Saw, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Beeves Rock Lighthouse, River Shannon.

THE Port of Dublin Corporation hereby give notice that a Lighthouse has been erected on the Beeves Rock, in the River Shannon, from which a light will be exhibited on the night of the 14th day of May next, 1855, and thereafter will be lighted during every night from sunset to sunrise.

Specification given of the position of the Rock, and appearance of the Light, by Mr. Halpin, Superintendent of Lighthouses.

Beeves Rock Lighthouse is erected at the south-west side of the Beeves tidal rock, in Lat.  $52^{\circ} 39' 0''$  N., and Long.  $9^{\circ} 1' 18''$  W., bearing

From Foynes Island (north shore),  $E. \frac{1}{4} S.$ , distant  $3 \frac{1}{2}$  nautic miles.

From Herring Rocks (north point),  $N.N.E.$ , distant  $0 \frac{3}{4}$  nautic miles.

From Carrig Keal,  $W. \frac{1}{4} N.$ , distant 4 nautic miles.

The light will be a fixed light, of the natural appearance—bright, as seen from the main channel between the bearings of  $S.E.$  by  $E.$  (round by the southward), and  $W. \frac{1}{2} S.$ ; and coloured red towards the passage northward of the Beeves Rocks. Its height 40 feet over the level of the high water of spring tides.

Over top of the attached dwelling the tower is circular.

To steer southward of the rocks in the entrance to the River Fergus, keep southward or outside the limits of the red colour of the light.

The bearings stated are magnetic—Var.  $28 \frac{1}{2}^{\circ} W.$

By order,

William Lees, Secretary.

Ballast Office, Dublin, 1st March, 1855.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Kinsale Lighthouse, South Coast of Ireland.

THE Port of Dublin Corporation hereby give notice, that on and after the evening of the 16th day of April, 1855, the light exhibited from the Lighthouse on the Old Head of Kinsale will be shown farther northerly within Courtmacsherry Bay.

Specification given of the Light, as it will appear from Courtmacsherry Bay, by Mr. Halpin, Superintendent of Lighthouses.

Kinsale Old Head Light is and will continue to be shown seaward and towards Kinsale Harbour as a fixed bright light; on the additional arc to be opened and lighted it will be coloured red, from a line across the entrance of Courtmacsherry Bay to the line of the Horse Rock; and farther within the bay, northward of that line, it will appear of the natural colour, a fixed bright light. Kinsale Light bears

From the Horse Rock (Courtmacsherry Bay),  $S.E.$  by  $E.$ , distant 5 nautic miles.

From the Black Tom Rock,  $S.E. \frac{1}{4} E.$ , distant 4 nautic miles.

From the Inner Barrels (east end),  $S.E. \frac{1}{2} S.$ , distant  $3 \frac{1}{2}$  nautic miles.

Vessels, unless trading to Courtmacsherry Harbour, should not pass into the bay within the limits of the red colour of the light.

Bearings stated are magnetic—Var.  $28^{\circ} W.$

By order,

William Lees, Secretary.

CONTRACTS FOR SUGAR, TEA, AND PEPPER.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, March 20, 1855.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Monday the 2nd April next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Sugar, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea 50,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Pepper, 5 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only, as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The sugar, tea and pepper, to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are respectively lying.

Each tender for sugar must specify the description with reference to the country of its growth or produce, or the quantity of each description, if it be desired to supply different country sugars, and samples of each description of the sugar (not less than 4 lbs.), of the tea (not less than 1 lb.), from the bonded warehouse, and of the pepper (not less than 2 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR RUM.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, March 20, 1855.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Monday, the 2nd April next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford,

Rum, 50,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the rum.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Rum," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACTS FOR CANVASS.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, March 13, 1855.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice that, on Tuesday the 10th of April next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's Dock Yards at Deptford, Portsmouth, and Devonport, with 31,554 BOLTS OF CANVASS (including 2,274 Bolts of 18 inches wide), to be delivered by the 31st of December next.

Tenders may be made for any quantity, not less than 1,000 bolts, and no tender will be received unless made on the printed form, properly filled up, which, together with "Instructions for making the Canvass," may be obtained on application to this Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Canvass," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value for the due performance of the contract
