TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Kingsford versus Ball, with the approbation of the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart, the Judge to whose Court this cause is attached, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of May, 1855, at six o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at Gough's Woodside Hotel, Birkenhead, in one lot, by Mr. Frederick John Hodgson, the person appointed for the purpose by the said Judge:

Valuable freehold property and land, consisting of two large and commodious dwelling houses, with gardens attached, and a plot of orchard or garden ground adjoining the same, applicable for building purposes, situate at Tranmere, near Birkenhead, and now in the occupation of Mr. David Ross and Mr. William Gregory.

N.B. If the highest bidding for the property in one lot does not reach the reserved price fixed by the Judge to whose Court this cause is attached, the property will afterwards be offered for sale in three lots.

Printed particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) in London, of Messrs. Kingsford and Dorman, Solicitors, Essex-street, Strand; Messrs. Dean and Son, Solicitors, No. 23, Bloomsbury-square; and Messrs. Chester, Toulmin and Chester, Solicitors, No. 11, Staple-inn; and in the country, of Mr. John Peacock, Solicitor, Liverpool; Messrs. Townsend and Ridley, Solicitors, Liverpool; and of the Auctioneer, Birkenhead.

Haverhill, Suffolk and Essex.

TO be sold, by auction, by Benjamin Tomson Thurgood, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a certain cause of Gibson versus Woollard, with the approbation of his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart, at the Bell Inn, Haverhill aforesaid, on Friday, the 27th day of April, 1855, at three o'clock in the afternoon, in seven lots.

Lot 1.—All that freehold old licensed Inn, called the Ram, and a house adjoining the same, situate in the town of Haverhill, with the brewing offices, farming premises, large yard, and about an acre of land adjoining the same.

The Inn and premises are in the occupation of Mr. William Woollard, and the house adjoining it unoccupied. The rental is £35 per annum.

Lot 2.—An allotment of freehold productive turnip and corn land, situate in the parish of Haverhill, containing 10A. 1R. 31P., adjoining the road to Sturmer, and lands of Sir George Beaumont, Mr. Purkis, and Queen's College, now in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Woollard.

Lot 3.—An inclosure of productive turnip and corn land, called Racks Croft, otherwise Hollands Hole, in Haverhill aforesaid, adjoining the road leading to Helions Bumpstead, and containing 2A. 1R. 2P., more or less.

This is copyhold of the manor of Haverhill, Horsham with Helions, and also occupied by Mr. Thomas Woollard.

Lot 4.—Two pieces of turnip and corn land, containing one acre each, more or less, in Broad Common, in Haverhill aforesaid, now, with lots 5 and 6, in the occupation of Mr. Charles Scott, at the nominal rent of £5.

This lot is copyhold of the manor of Haverhill, Horsham, and Helions.

Lot 5.—A piece of freehold arable land, containing about three roods, more or less, lying in Hales Common, in Haverhill, adjoining lands of H. J. Sperling, Esq., and J. Boreham, Esq.

Lot 6.—Another piece of freehold land, containing half an acre, more or less, adjoining lands of H. J. Sperling, Esq., and Queen's College.

Lot 7.—All those seven cottages, with the garden and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate at Crowland, in Haverhill, adjoining the road leading to Withersfield, in the occupations of Cracknell, Nash, Meads, and others. Rental £20.

Copyhold of the manor of Haverhill, Horshams, with Helions.

Printed particulars, with plans of the estate and conditions of sale, may be had (gratis) of Messrs. Sharpe, Field, and Jackson, No. 41, Bedford-row; of Messrs. Meymott and Co., No. 86, Blackfriars-road; Mr. Ley, No. 1, Little Carter-lane, Doctors' Commons; of Messrs. William and R. D. Thurgood, Saffron Walden, Essex; of Mr. Jackson, Solicitor, Haverhill; of the Auctioneer, Saffron Walden; and at the place of sale.
