

the north side of the said canal to the bridge over the said canal near to Balne Croft; thence in a westwardly or north-westwardly direction along a road to the township of Pollington; thence along the boundary between the townships of Pollington and Snaith and Cowick aforesaid, to the Haggs Drain; thence along the said Haggs Drain to the Carr Drain; thence eastwardly along the Carr Drain to Finley-lane; thence in a westwardly direction along the west side of Finley-lane to the footpath leading from Finley-lane to Spa Well-lane; thence along the same footpath to Spa Well-lane; thence along the west side of the same lane northwardly to a fence dividing two closes of land belonging to Viscount Downe, now in the occupation of William Sumner, numbered respectively 452 and 454 on the said last-mentioned title apportionment plan; thence westwardly along the last-mentioned fence to the fence dividing the said close, numbered 452, from another close belonging to the Viscount Downe, numbered 453 on the same plan; thence northwardly along the last-mentioned fence and along the boundaries on the west sides respectively, of the premises belonging to Viscount Downe and William Hartley (late Oxley's trustees), numbered respectively 451 and 450 on the same plan, to the footpath on the north side of the premises of the said William Hartley, numbered 450 on the same plan; thence eastwardly along the same footpath to the west side of Spa Well-lane aforesaid; thence northwardly along the same lane and across the Town-street of Cowick village, to the fence dividing the premises, numbered respectively 341 and 342, now or late belonging to James Skelton and Viscount Downe respectively; thence northwardly along the same fence and along the boundary fence dividing the field, numbered 395 on the same plan, from the premises numbered respectively 398, 397, and 396, on the same plan, to and in a straight line northwardly across the turnpike-road from Snaith to Thorne; thence in an eastwardly direction along the north side of the same turnpike-road to and along the fences dividing the closes of land formerly belonging to Nicholas Edmund Yarburgh and George Daniel respectively, but now to Yarburgh Yarburgh, Esq., numbered respectively 217, 218, and 209, on the same plan, from the closes of land and premises respectively belonging to Frederick Clark (late Robert Bramley and John Rhodes), numbered respectively 219, 220, and 205, on the same plan, to the occupation-road leading from Snaith, to Snaith and Cowick Ings; thence eastwardly along the south side of the last-mentioned road to the drain dividing the marsh from the said Ings; thence in a north-eastwardly direction along the last-mentioned drain to the River Aire; thence eastwardly along the south bank of the River Aire to the point where the said township of Snaith and Cowick joins the said township of Rawcliffe, as such district chapelry of East Cowick is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings and burials, should be solemnized or performed in the said churches of Saint John, at Balne, and the Holy Trinity, at East Cowick aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the ministers or incumbents for the time being of the said churches at Balne and East Cowick aforesaid.

"That the consent of the said Thomas, Archbishop of York, has been obtained thereto, as required by the two Acts and sections lastly hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the maps or plans thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned, for the consecrated church of Saint Paul, at Hensall, in the parish of Snaith, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate, to serve the said church, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the right of presentation and nomination to the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, William Henry Viscount Downe, his heirs and assigns for ever, they being the persons mentioned in such representation; and it is hereby further ordered, that the proposed assignment of district chapelries to the consecrated churches of St. John, at Balne, and of the Holy Trinity at East Cowick, both in the said parish of Snaith, be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said last-mentioned two churches, and the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of March, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the sixteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following; viz:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, it appears to them to be expedient that a