

Public Health Act, humbly report to your Majesty, that it appears to be expedient that :

"1. 'The Public Health Act, 1848,' and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by your Majesty's printers, should be applied to, and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said township of Eccleshill, in the parish of Bradford, in the county of York, and that such area, places, and parts of places should be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

"2. The Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act should consist of nine persons, and that the entire number should be elected for the whole of the said district.

"3. The first election of the said Local Board should take place on the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

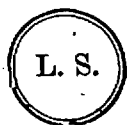

"4. One-third in number of the said Local Board of Health should go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said first election of that Local Board takes place; but in case the day so appointed should fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then that such one-third should go out of office on the day next following.

"5. Every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, should be resident, as in the said 'Public Health Act, 1848,' is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than two hundred and fifty pounds, or should be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than five pounds.

"6. At the first election of the said Local Board, James Armitstead, of Town-street, within the district of Eccleshill, should perform the duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting the said first election; and in case the said James Armitstead, from illness or other sufficient cause, should be unable to discharge such duties, or should be absent, or should refuse to act, then Julius Dalby, of Eccleshill, within the district aforesaid, should perform such of the said duties as then remain to be performed.

"7. The fourteen days' notice of qualification required by 'The Public Health Act, 1848,' to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, should be given to the said James Armitstead, at his residence, No. 7, Town-street, within the district of Eccleshill aforesaid; or in case he should refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Julius Dalby, at his residence, likewise within the aforesaid township of Eccleshill.

"Given under my hand, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this first day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

(Signed) B. Hall."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said Report into consideration, is pleased to approve thereof, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of "The Public Health Act, 1848," order and direct that :

1. From and after the date of this Order, "The Public Health Act, 1848," and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said township of Eccleshill, in the parish of Bradford, in the county of York, and that such area, places, and parts of places, shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

2. The Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act shall consist of nine persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

3. The first election of the said Local Board shall take place on the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

4. One-third in number of the said Local Board of Health shall go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year, subsequently to that in which the said first election of that Local Board takes place; but in case the day so appointed shall fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then that such one-third shall go out of office on the day next following.

5. Every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, shall be resident, as in the said "Public Health Act, 1848," is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than two hundred and fifty pounds, or shall be so resident, and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than five pounds.

6. At the first election of the said Local Board, James Armitstead, of Town-street, within the district of Eccleshill, shall perform the duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting the said first election; and in case the said James Armitstead, from illness, or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to discharge such duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Julius Dalby, of Eccleshill, within the district aforesaid, shall perform such of the said duties as then remain to be performed.

7. The fourteen days' notice of qualification, required by "The Public Health Act, 1848," to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, shall be given to the said James Armitstead, at his residence, No. 7, Town-street, within the district of Eccleshill aforesaid, or in case he shall refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Julius Dalby, at his residence, likewise within the aforesaid township of Eccleshill.
