Bristol, Freehold, and Leasehold Messuages.

To be peremptorily sold.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a certain cause, Page v. Mintorn, on Tuesday, the 3rd day of July, 1855, at six o'clock in the afternoon, at the Montague Tavern, Kingsdown, Bristol, by Messrs. Jackson, Garrard and Neale, the persons appointed for that purpose, in two lots, the property of the late William Harmar, Esq., consisting of a freehold dwelling-house, situate and being No. 11, Kingsdown Parade, in the city of Bristol, complete with every convenience, for a genteel family, and late in the occupation of William Harmar, Esq., deceased. Also a leasehold dwelling-house, situate and being No. 1, Ship-lane, Cathay, in the city of Bristol, in the occupation of Captain Hutchins, as tenant, at the yearly rent of £14. This lot is equal to freehold, being held under a long lease, of which there are about 785 years unexpired, on payment of an annual rent of one penny.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) in London, of Messrs. Baker, Ruck, and Jennings, Solicitors, No. 34, Lime-street; of Messrs. Dobinson and Geare, No. 57, Lincoln's-inn-fields; and in Bristol, of Mr. Matthew Perkins, Solicitor; and Mr. James George Hobbs, Solicitor; and of the Auctioneer; and at the place of sale.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in the cause of Beeston v. Beeston, with the approbation of the Vice-Chancellor Wood, by Mr. Leifchild, at Garraway's Coffee-house, Change-alley, London, on Wednesday, the 4th day of July, 1855, at twelve o'clock, in two lots:

A leasehold estate, comprising the North London Depository, occupying an extensive area of ground, upon which has been erected a quadrangular pile of buildings, upon the principle of the Pantechnicum, for warehousing household furniture, carriages, and other property, in Gray's-inn-road, near the terminus of the Great Northern Railway, at King's Cross.

Also two leasehold dwelling-houses adjoining the above property, in Gray's-inn-road and Liverpool-street.

Also two policies of assurance, for £400 and £250, effected with the Alliance Life Assurance Company.

Also an annuity of £56, payable during the life of a gentleman, aged 57 years.

Particulars, with plans, may be had of Mr. William Bevan, Solicitor, No. 6, Old Jewry, London; at Garraway's Coffee-house, Change-alley, London; of Messrs. Vallance and Vallance, Solicitors, No. 20, Essex-street, Strand, London; and of Mr. Leifchild, Auctioneer, No. 62, Moor-gate-street, London.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Williams v. Prosser, now Williams v. Oakley, with the approbation of the Vice-Chancellor Sir William Page Wood, the Judge to whose Court the said cause is attached, at the Cambrian Inn, Solva, in the county of Pembroke, on Monday, the 2nd day of July, 1855, in one lot, by Mr. Harry Philips Goode, the Auctioneer appointed for the purpose by the said Judge.

A desirable neat and compact dwelling-house, called Ninewells, with garden, stabling, gig, cart, and cowhouses, and other appurtenances attached thereto, situate in the parish of Saint Davids, in the county of Pembroke, late the property of Captain John Prosser, deceased, and now let at the yearly rent of £20.

Also, the unexpired interest of the said John Prosser, deceased, of and in a cottage and garden and five fields or closes of land, situate in the same parish, and of and in three fields, situate at Llanurigian, in the same parish, the latter containing by admeasurement 6A. 3R. 3P., and the whole being near the said freehold property, and which were held by the said John Prosser, deceased, under leases for three lives, two of whom, aged respectively 42 and 38, are now living; and are now let to the tenant of the said freehold property at the yearly rent of £27 10s., the reserved rent being £20 6s.

The freehold part of the property is situate in the high-road from Haverfordwest to Saint Davids, and distant about 14 miles from the former and 2 miles from the latter, and from the rising village and port of Solva one mile.

The leaseholds are particularly conveniently situated with regard to the freehold, and were on that account selected by the late proprietor.

Printed particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) in London, of Messrs. Trinder and Eyre, Solicitors, No. 1, John-street, Bedford-row; and of Messrs. Hastings and Smith, Solicitors, No. 3, Southampton-street, Bloomsbury-square; and of Messrs. Evans, Powell and Company, Solicitors, Haverfordwest; of Messrs. Rees and Davies, Solicitors, Haverfordwest; of Messrs. Goode and Owen, Land Agents, Haverfordwest; and at the place of sale.

IMPORTANT sale of three valuable freehold farms, together with several pieces or parcels of land, which are severally situate in the several parishes of Longcot and Fernham, in the county of Berks, and of Clanfield and Radcot, in the county of Oxford, together with the right of tolls and fishing at the Weir in the River Thames, in the parish of Clanfield, will be sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the cause of Atherton v. Crowther, and other causes, dated the 15th day of January, 1855, with the approbation of his Honour the Master of the Rolls, in nine lots, by Messrs. Fidel and Dyke, of Farringdon, in the county of Berks, at the Crown Inn Hotel, in the town of Farringdon, on Tuesday, the 3rd day of July, 1855, at one o'clock in the afternoon, subject to such conditions as shall be then and there produced.

Lot 1.—A piece of arable land, situate in the village of Fernham, called by the name of the Burnt Close, and containing 3R. 28P., part of Fernham Farm; in the possession of Mr. John Hulcup, and now in the possession of Mr. William Curtis.

Lot 2.—A piece of pasture land, on the right hand side of the road leading from Fernham to Uffington, in the parish of Fernham, and containing 3A. 30P., part of Fernham Farm; in the possession of Mr. John Hulcup, and now in the occupation of Mr. Hibberd.

Lot 3.—A farmhouse and homestall, called Fernham Farm, situate in the parish of Fernham, containing 124A. 1R. 14P. of arable, pasture, and wood land; now let to Mr. John Hulcup.

Lot 4.—A farmhouse and buildings, called Nightingales's
