At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of May, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for compensating certain spiritual persons whose emoluments have been diminished by reason of proceedings under the said Act.

"Whereas the said Act, together with the Acts therein recited, authorize the assigning at any time, and from time to time, to the incumbent of any church or chapel whose fees, dues, or other emoluments shall be diminished by or in consequence of any proceeding under the provisions of the first-mentioned Act, of such an annual sum as shall, upon due inquiry, appear to be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"And whereas by certain duly gazetted Orders of your Majesty in Council for confirming certain schemes prepared by us, pursuant to the same Act, certain new parishes have been duly constituted, and the perpetual curates thereof respectively have become entitled to receive certain fees, dues, or other emoluments arising therein, and we deem it just and reasonable that compensation should be made to the incumbents of the churches or chapels hereinafter mentioned whose fees, dues, or other emoluments have been diminished by or in consequence of such proceedings, and that the annual sums hereinafter mentioned should be assigned to such incumbents.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that, in respect of the new parishes mentioned in the first column of the schedule hereunto annexed, there shall be paid by us, to the several incumbents named and described in the second column of the same schedule, so long as they shall respectively remain such incumbents, and no longer, the annual sums mentioned in the third column thereof by way of such compensation as aforesaid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, and that the payment to be made in each case on the first day of November next shall be a sum calculated at the annual rate applicable to such cases from the day on which the fees, dues, and other emoluments became so as aforesaid receivable by the perpetual curates of such new parishes respectively.

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the Reverend William Quekett, formerly the incumbent of the chapelry district of Christ Church, in Saint George's-in-the-East, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, the sum of eighty-one pounds eight shillings and fourpence, by way of compensation for the loss of fees, dues, and other emoluments sustained by him when incumbent of the said district, by reason of the formation thereof of the new parish of Saint Mary in Saint George's-in-the-East.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

Lot 1.—All that capital mansion or dwelling-house, situate at Mixenden, in the township of Ovenden, and called the Seed Hill Grove, comprising dining, drawing, and breakfast-rooms, spacious entrance-hall, two kitchens, store-room, and closets, on the ground-floor; and five capacious bed-rooms, two dressing-rooms, and water-closet, on the first-floor; and complete and ample cellarage in the basement. Together with the large carriage-house, four-stand stable, and hay-chamber extending over both, harness-room with dove-cote over, eight separate or distinct well-built mistals or cattle-houses, three piggeries and hen-houses over, tool-house, farm-yard, and conveniences; and also the large pleasure-grounds, plantations, and kitchen-gardens.

The house has been recently erected at a great expense, and is substantially built. The exterior is of wrought stone, ornamentally designed and well finished; and the interior is replete with all conveniences, and has been constructed with every regard to elegance and comfort. The dining-room is 27 feet by 18; the drawing-room and principal bed-rooms and kitchen are lofty and spacious; and the other rooms are well proportioned.

The carriage-house, stable, and other outbuildings, are well built of stone, ventilated, and drained, and are admirably adapted to their several purposes, and embrace all modern improvements.

The pleasure-grounds are tastefully laid out and well kept, and the kitchen-gardens are extensive, abundantly stocked with fruit-trees of every description, and in first-rate condition.

The premises have an ample supply of spring-water; and the house and outbuildings are fitted up for gas.

The house stands upon an eligible elevation. Its principal fronts are towards the south and east, and command extensive and unbroken views of the beautiful and romantic scenery of the district; and, taken as a whole, it is a desirable and compact residence for a respectable family.

The property is situate about four miles from Halifax, and about six miles from Bradford.
