"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Wombridge and Shiffnal, in the county of Salop, and diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the said parish of Wombridge, under the power for such purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Oakengates,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"On the east by the line of the Shropshire Canal, from the point where the parishes of Wombridge, Wrockwardine, and Shiffnal meet, as far as the branch of the Ketley Canal, where the boundary line of the parishes of Wombridge and Shiffnal again meet, on the south-east and partly on the south by the said boundary line, on the south by the parish of Dawley, on the south-west and west by the township of Ketley and parish of Wellington, as far as the road from Wellington to Oakengates, and on the north by the remaining part of the parish of Wombridge, from which the said consolidated chapelry is separated by an imaginary line proceeding from the point where the said road from Oakengates to Wellington meets the boundary line of the township of Ketley, and in a north-easterly direction in a straight line to a point where a boundary stone is placed at the eastern side of the new road, leading from Oakengates to Wrockwardine Wood, and then following the boundary line of the parishes of Wombridge and Wrockwardine to the point where the boundary line of the said consolidated chapelry commenced and as such consolidated chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink and blue.

"That the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, of St. John Chiverton Charlton, of Apley Castle, in the county of Salop, Esquire, patron of the parish church of the said parish of Wombridge, and of the Reverend John Brooke, of Haughton, in the said county of Salop, Clerk, patron of the parish church of the said parish of Shiffnal, have been obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Oakengates as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said St. John Chiverton Charlton and John Brooke, as such respective patrons as aforesaid, testified as aforesaid, with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners testified as hereinafter mentioned, and of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified as aforesaid, that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of the Holy Trinity aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion may require be exercised by the bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield for the time being.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."
