WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of "postage," power is given to the Postmaster-General to remit any of the rates of British postage for the time being, payable by law, on the transmission of post letters, newspapers, or other printed papers, to such extent as the Lords of the Treasury shall from time to time direct; and power is also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant, under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British or inland postage, payable by law, on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant.

And whereas, by six several Warrants of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date respectively the 17th day of May, 1854, the 16th day of October, 1854, the 9th day of January, 1855, the 29th day of March, 1855, the 19th day of May, 1855, and the 29th day of June, 1855, certain reduced rates of postage were authorised to be charged and taken for and in respect of the several letters therein respectively mentioned, posted in or addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, and sent from or to the several persons therein respectively mentioned, being persons employed in the several military, naval, or transport services under Her Majesty, respectively mentioned in the said several Warrants, and transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and the several places therein respectively mentioned, such places being respectively Turkey or the Black Sea, or any port or place in Turkey or the Black Sea, the kingdom of Greece, or any port or place in Greece, the Baltic Sea, or the adjacent waters, or any port or place in the Baltic or the adjacent waters, the White Sea, or the adjacent waters, or any port or place in the White Sea, or the adjacent waters, and Heligoland, such letters being sent and conveyed by the several routes in the said Warrants also respectively mentioned.

And whereas it is expedient that such reduced rates of postage should be extended to all such letters mentioned in the said six several Warrants, and addressed to or sent by or from the said several persons therein respectively mentioned, if sent between any of the British colonies through the United Kingdom and the said places in the said Warrants respectively mentioned, in addition to the rates of postage chargeable by law for the conveyance of such letters between the United Kingdom and the said colonies respectively in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said recited Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order, direct, and declare, as follows:

1. That all letters addressed to or sent by or from the said several persons mentioned in the said six several Warrants hereinbefore recited respectively, and authorized to be sent by the post according to the regulations therein contained, shall and may be sent and transmitted by the post, between any of the British Colonies through the United Kingdom, and the said several places in the said six several Warrants respectively mentioned and enumerated, and conveyed by the several routes therein respectively specified, charged and chargeable with the same rates of postage according to the weight and scales of weight thereof respectively, and under and subject to the same conditions, regulations and restrictions in all respects as are contained and mentioned in, and by the said six several Warrants respectively, according to the respective places to or from which the same shall be so addressed, for and in respect of the conveyance thereof, between the United Kingdom, and the said several places respectively; and also charged and chargeable in addition thereto, with such rates of postage according to the weight and scales of weight of such letters respectively, as are by law chargeable and payable for the transmission thereof by the post, between the United Kingdom and such British Colonies respectively, for and in respect of the conveyance thereof between the United Kingdom and the said British Colonies respectively, through the United Kingdom; and that the rates of postage hereby imposed shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on letters transmitted by the post between the British Colonies and the several persons mentioned in the said recited Warrants.

2. That the several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Act.

3. That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their hands duly made and signed, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
