

routes in the said Warrants also respectively mentioned.

And whereas it is expedient that such reduced rates of postage should be extended to all such letters mentioned in the said six several Warrants, and addressed to or sent by or from the said several persons therein respectively mentioned, if sent between any of the British colonies through the United Kingdom and the said places in the said Warrants respectively mentioned, in addition to the rates of postage chargeable by law for the conveyance of such letters between the United Kingdom and the said colonies respectively in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said recited Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order, direct, and declare, as follows:

1. That all letters addressed to or sent by or from the said several persons mentioned in the said six several Warrants hereinbefore recited respectively, and authorized to be sent by the post according to the regulations therein contained, shall and may be sent and transmitted by the post, between any of the British Colonies through the United Kingdom, and the said several places in the said six several Warrants respectively mentioned and enumerated, and conveyed by the several routes therein respectively specified, charged and chargeable with the same rates of postage according to the weight and scales of weight thereof respectively, and under and subject to the same conditions, regulations and restrictions in all respects as are contained and mentioned in, and by the said six several Warrants respectively, according to the respective places to or from which the same shall be so addressed, for and in respect of the conveyance thereof, between the United Kingdom, and the said several places respectively; and also charged and chargeable in addition thereto, with such rates of postage according to the weight and scales of weight of such letters respectively, as are by law chargeable and payable for the transmission thereof by the post, between the United Kingdom and such British Colonies respectively, for and in respect of the conveyance thereof between the United Kingdom and the said British Colonies respectively, through the United Kingdom; and that the rates of postage hereby imposed shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on letters transmitted by the post between the British Colonies and the several persons mentioned in the said recited Warrants.

2. That the several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Act.

3. That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their hands duly made and signed, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now making for the intended distribution of proceeds arising from the Russian schooner Volga, captured on the 19th June, 1854, by Her Majesty's ships Miranda and Eurydice.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.
