The London Gazette

Of TUESDAY the 28th of AUGUST.

Whitehall, August 28, 1855.

THE Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., has received the following Despatch from the Earl of Clarendon, K. G., dated Boulogne, the 27th of August, 1855.

SIR, Boulogne, August 27, 1855.

I HAVE the honour to inform you that the Queen, Prince Albert, the Prince of Wales, and the Princess Royal, quitted Paris this morning accompanied by the Emperor. Their Majesties proceeded in State from the Tuileries to the Railway Station. The Streets and Boulevards were lined with troops. The concourse of people assembled was as great as, and the reception of the Queen was even more enthusiastic than, when Her Majesty entered Paris.

The Queen is profoundly sensible of the kindness with which she has been received by the Emperor and Empress, and of those manifestations of respect and cordiality on the part of the French Nation by which she has everywhere been greeted.

On personal and political grounds the visit to Paris has afforded the highest gratification to Her Majesty.

The magnificent Army of Boulogne has just been reviewed by the Queen. Her Majesty will embark to night at eleven o'clock. The Emperor will accompany Her Majesty out to sea, and return here in his own yacht.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) CLARENDON.

Right Hon. Sir George Grey, Bart.,
