TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1855.

Foreign Office, August 12, 1855.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Spenser St. John, Esq., now Acting Consul-General, to be Her Majesty's Consul-General in the Island of Borneo.

Foreign Office, September 1, 1855.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Senior Manoel Joaquin Soares, as Consul at Sydney, in Australia, for the King of Portugal.

The Queen has also been pleased to approve of Mr. Henry Chapman as Consul at Montreal for the King of Prussia.

Whitehall, September 4, 1855.

The Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has appointed the undermentioned Gentlemen to set out the Wards and apportion the number of Vestrymen, under an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for the better local management of the Metropolis:

Alexander Pulling, Esq., Barrister-at-Law;
Arthur John Wood, Esq., Barrister-at-Law;
George Baugh Allen, Esq.; and William Durrant Cooper, Esq.

Whitehall, September 4, 1855.

The Queen has been pleased to give and grant unto Thomas Henry Sutton Sotheron, of Estcourt, in the county of Gloucester, Esquire, one of the Knights of the Shire for the northern division of the county of Wilts, Her royal licence and authority that he and his issue may henceforth resume his paternal surname of Estcourt in addition to and after that of Sotheron, and bear and use the arms of Estcourt quarterly in the first quarter with those of Sotheron; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 4, 1855.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that, on the twenty-fourth day of July last it was resolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, that Sir James Carnegie, of Southesk, Kinnaird, and Pittarrow, Baronet, had made out his claim and was entitled to the dignity of Earl of Southesk, and whereas, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brothers and sister of the said Sir James Carnegie, now Earl of Southesk, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them had their late father, Sir James Carnegie, of Southesk, Baronet, survived to have received the grace of the Crown, by being relieved from the effects of a certain attainder, and been declared entitled to the Earldom of Southesk, to which he preferred his claim in the year 1847, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that John Carnegie, Esquire, Charles Carnegie, Esquire, and Charlotte Carnegie, Spinster, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their late father, Sir James Carnegie, had survived to have received the grace of the Crown, and been declared entitled to the Earldom of Southesk.

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that, upon the decease of John, Viscount and Baron Ponsonby of Imokilly, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, which happened in the month of February last, that the dignity of Viscount Ponsonby became extinct, but the dignity of Baron Ponsonby of Imokilly devolved upon William, now Baron Ponsonby of Imokilly, as only son and heir of his father Sir William Ponsonby, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, who fell in the battle of Waterloo, and who, whilst living, was the second son of William Brabazon Ponsonby, first Baron Ponsonby of Imokilly, and next brother to the said John Viscount and Baron Ponsonby, and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the sisters of the said William, Baron Ponsonby of Imokilly, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their late father, the said Sir William Ponsonby, had survived his brother, the said John, Viscount and Baron Ponsonby, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Ponsonby of Imokilly; Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Annie Louisa, wife of William Tighe Hamilton, Esq., and Charlotte Georgiana, wife of Charles Talbot, Esq., a Captain in the Royal Navy, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their late father, Sir William Ponsonby, had survived his brother, the said John, Viscount and Baron Ponsonby, and had succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Ponsonby of Imokilly:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 21, 1855.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Thomas William Booker, of the Leys, in the parish of Ganarew, in the county of Hereford, and of Velindra House, in the parish of Whitchurch, in the county of Glamorgan, Esquire, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said county of Hereford, in the Commission of the Peace for the counties of Hereford, Glamorgan, and Monmouth, and Deputy Lieutenant for the said counties of Hereford and Glamorgan, Her royal licence and authority that he may henceforth take the surname of Blakemore, in addition to and after that of Booker, and use and bear the arms of Blakemore quarterly, in the first quarter, with those of Booker, pursuant to the wish and desire contained in a codicil to the last will and testament of his late maternal uncle, Richard Blakemore, of the Leys aforesaid, Esquire, sometime one of the Representatives in Parliament for the city of Wells, deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 3, 1855.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Manila, reporting that three new ports; viz.: Sual, Iloili, and Zamboanga, in the Philippine Islands, have been publickly declared open to foreign trade.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 3, 1855.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at the Piræus, reporting the establishment of quarantine on vessels arriving from Malta.

CONTRACTS FOR COALS AND CANDLES.

Office of Ordnance, August 20, 1855.

THOSE persons who may be desirous of contracting with the Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, to furnish, from the 1st of October next, to the 30th of June, 1856, such quantities of

COALS and CANDLES as may, from time to time, be required for Barracks and Ordnance Stations in Great Britain and the Channel Islands, can receive particulars of the contracts on applying at this Office, between the hours of ten and four.

Tenders for supplying either coals or candles must be sealed up and marked "Tender for Coals," or "Tender for Candles," and will be received at this Office, addressed to the Director-General of Contracts, on or before Saturday the 15th day of September next, and at any time during that day; but no proposal, either for coals or candles, will be noticed unless made on, or annexed to, a printed particular, which must be duly filled up and the prices inserted in words at length.

Tenders to be made for the several barracks and stations as joined together in the particulars of contract.

T. Howell, Director-General of Contracts.

Lancashire.

Freehold estate with the mines and minerals thereunder.

TO be sold, in pursuance of an Order of the High Court of Chancery, dated the 10th day of July, 1855, and made in a cause of Ratcliffe v. Hampson and others (such sale to be approved by the Judge to whose Court the cause is attached), a valuable and very compact freehold estate, called the Stonehouse estate, in a ring fence situate in the township of Tyldesley, and county of Lancaster, comprising about 33A. 1R. 19F. statute measure, consisting of a farmhouse, buildings, orchard, yard, garden and lands, let to Mr. John Hampson, a highly respectable yearly tenant, together with the mines and seams of coal thereunder, on the 26th day of September, 1855, at three o'clock precisely, at the Star and Garter Inn, Tyldesley, by Mr. W. H. Capes, of Manchester, Auctioneer, the person appointed to sell the same, in one lot:

The estate lies in the manufacturing districts of Lancashire, and the coal and stone under it are very abundant and valuable. The estate is situated 9 miles from Manchester, 5 from Bolton-le-Moors, 2 from Worsley, 8 from Wigan, and 3 from Leigh, is within 50 yards of the old turnpike road between Manchester and Wigan. It is surrounded by railways and canals, thus placing the estate and its mineral productions, by easy means of transit, in immediate communication with ready markets.

There is likewise a stream of water running through the estate, which would form a valuable adjunct in any mining or manufacturing operations.

The coal mines under the estate are the mines or seams known as Crombrooke Great Mine, Brassey, and Black and White Mine, and are of considerable depth, some of which lying in the adjoining properties are now being worked by the Trustees of the Duke of Bridgewater and others.

The stone, which is sand stone of a pure white and close character, and within a few feet of the surface, is abundant and suitable for first class building purposes. There is also under the estate, clay of a superior character well adapted to bricks and tile making.

The estate may be viewed by the permission of the tenant and particulars and conditions with plans of same, may be had (gratis) of Messrs. W. and H. P. Sharp, No. 2, Verulam-buildings, Gray's-inn, London; Messrs. Bower, Son and Cotton, of No. 46, Chancery-lane, London; Messrs. Slater and Heelis, Manchester; and of the Auctioneer, No. 22, Princess-street, Manchester; Mr. Samuel Sumerfield, Joiner and Builder, Tyldesley; and the Star and Garter Hotel, Tyldesley.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the county palatine of Lancaster, made on the 16th day of August, 1855, in a cause Thomson against Jackson, and in a cause Parr against Duke, the creditors of James Parr, late of Birkenhead, in the county of Chester, and of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Provision Merchant, deceased, who died in or about the month of July, 1853, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 1st day of October next, to come in and prove their debts or claims at the office of the District Registrar of the said Court of Chancery of the county palatine of Lancaster, at 3, Clayton-square, in Liverpool, in the said county, or, in default thereof, they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.—Dated this 31st day of August, 1855.

NOTICE.—James Frederick Harold, of Southampton, in the county of Southampton, Milliner, by deed, dated 21st day of August, 1855, assigned, in trust, for the benefit of his creditors, unto William Lycett, of Gutterlane, in the city of London, Warehouseman, all his freehold and copyhold estates, and all also his stock in trade, debts, goods, estate and effects, whatsoever, and the said James Frederick Harold executed the said deed on the said 21st day of August last, and the said William Lycett on the 25th day of August last, in the presence of William Taylor Prichard, of No. 99, Newgate-street, London, Solicitor, where it now remains for execution by the creditors of the said James Frederick Harold.—Dated this 1st day of September, 1855.

THIS is to give notice, that by indenture, bearing date the 16th day of August, 1855, John Williams, of No. 13, Dolphin-street, Newport, in the county of Monmouth, Common Brewer, hath assigned all his personal estate and effects, whatsoever, to Robert Crawford Slade, of Newport aforesaid, Accountant, and Robert Graham, also of Newport aforesaid, Auctioneer, trustees upon trust, for the benefit of the creditors of the said John Williams; and that the said indenture was executed by the said John Williams, on the day of the date thereof, by the said Robert Crawford Slade, on the 23rd day of August, 1855, and by the said Robert Graham, on the 28th day of August, 1855, and their execution thereof respectively witnessed by Augustus Bertram Champ, of Newport, in the county of Monmouth, Gentleman; which indenture now lies at the offices of the said A. B. Champ, at Newport aforesaid, for the inspection of and execution by the several creditors of the said John Williams.—Dated this 29th day of August, 1855.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture, dated the 8th day of August, 1855, Richard Willey, of Gallowtree-gate, in Leicester, in the county of Leicester, Woollen Draper, assigned all his personal estate and effects to Richard Crosher, of Loughborough, in the said county of Leicester, Grocer, and William Shaw, of Huddersfield, in the county of York, Woollen Cloth Manufacturer, in trust, for the equal benefit of all the creditors of the said Richard Willey who should execute the said indenture; and which said indenture was duly executed by the said Richard Willey and Richard Crosher on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of, and attested by, Alfred Paget, of Leicester, Solicitor, and George Stevenson, of Leicester, Solicitor; and by the said William Shaw, on the 9th day of August, 1855, in the presence of, and attested by, Thomas Brook, of Huddersfield, Solicitor. And notice is hereby further given, that the said indenture now lies at the office of Messrs.
