The London Gazette

Of TUESDAY the 6th of NOVEMBER.

Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1855.

War-Department, November 7, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosures, of which the following are copies, addressed to his Lordship by General Sir James Simpson, G.C.B.

Sevastopol,

MY LORD,

October 23, 1855.

I HAVE the honour to transmit the copy of a letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Ready, of the 4th October, and its enclosure, giving an account of the proceedings of a detachment of the force which was sent to Taman, for the purpose of collecting firewood and building materials.

The service was satisfactorily performed. Unfortunately three soldiers of the 71st lost their lives, in consequence of their having strayed beyond the limits prescribed to them.

I transmit the nominal return of the non-commissioned officers and men of the 10th Hussars, who were taken prisoners on the 21st September, in the affair with the Cossacks, reported by me in my letter of the 29th September.

I have reason to believe that the greater portion of the Turkish Contingent are now assembled at Kertch.

No further intelligence has been received from Kinburn.

The health of the army continues very good. A few cases of cholera have occurred during the past week, but it is confined entirely to the new comers.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) JAMES SIMPSON,

General Commanding.

P.S.—Since I commenced writing this despatch, I have received the accompanying report from Brigadier-General the Hon. A. Spencer.

The Lord Panmure, &c. &c. &c.

Enclosure 1.

Yenikale,

October 4, 1855.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inform you that the joint French and English Expedition to Taman returned from thence yesterday the 3rd instant, and that the three companies of the 71st Regiment, under the command of Major Hunter, which formed the British part of the force, have resumed their former quarters in Kertch.

Enclosed is the report of Major Hunter of his proceedings during his stay in Phanagoria. The arrangements he made for executing the duties entrusted to him, and providing against the desultory attacks to be expected from the enemy, gave me complete satisfaction. I regret, however, that I have, notwithstanding, to report the loss of three men, who were surprized by the Cossacks, whilst straggling from their party, one of whom was killed and his body found, and the two others supposed to have been captured.

The French and English gunboats, having
