

eight of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the churchyard of Trowse Newton, in the city of NORWICH, from the first of February last, which date has since been extended to the first of January next, and it seems fit that the said Order should be varied; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said churchyard may continue to be used, on condition that the ground be kept free from water to the depth of six feet at the least, and that except family vaults and graves, no grave be disturbed which has been used within twenty years.
