At the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of November, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," or of any other power in such behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Wolstanton, Keele, and Hanford, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said parishes and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate at or near Knutton Heath, in the said parish of Wolstanton, under and by virtue of the power contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' or of any other power in this behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Silverdale and Knutton Heath,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The boundary line commences at the corner of Keele Hall Park Wall, at Rosemary-hill, at the point marked A on the map or plan hereto annexed, and proceeds north-westerly in a straight line to Heaps Cottages, and then turning westerly proceeds along the middle of the main road from Knutton Heath to Keele as far as the Haying Weighing Machine; then in a northerly direction along the middle of the occupation road leading to Bank Top Farm until it arrives at a small cottage near an old coal-pit; then turns abruptly to the north-west and proceeds in a straight line to an angle in the road from Lycett to Knutton

Heath, opposite the Bud Hay Farm-house, and proceeds along the middle of the Lycett-road until it reaches the boundary line of the parish of Madeley, and then proceeds easterly and south-easterly along the boundary line which separates the said parish of Keele from the parishes of Madeley, Audley, and Wolstanton, as far as the line which forms the boundary of the new parish of Chesterton, and then proceeds north-easterly along the boundary of such new parish of Chesterton until it arrives at a small stream separating the Ormes School Estate from the White Barn Estate; then proceeds south-easterly along the middle of the same stream until it joins a larger one flowing from Grindle Well or Low Meadow Well; it then proceeds along the middle of the larger stream until it joins the boundary line between the parishes of Stoke-upon-Trent and Wolstanton, along which it proceeds westerly and southerly until it joins that between Newcastle-under-Lyne and Wolstanton, near the Rotterdam Farm; then it continues along the said boundary southerly until it arrives at the road leading from Keele to Newcastle, and after crossing the said road follows the boundary of the parishes of Hanford and Stoke-upon-Trent until it reaches a fence at about one hundred yards from the east corner of 'Hands Wood;' then proceeds along the said fence in a southerly direction, and along the south-eastern fence of Hands Wood, until it reaches the brook at the southern corner of the said wood; then proceeds northerly along the boundary separating the parish of Hanford from the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, until it reaches the boundary line of the said parish of Keele, along which it then proceeds until it reaches the point at which the boundary line of the said consolidated chapelry of Silverdale and Knutton Heath commenced, at the corner of Keele Hall Park Wall, at Rosemary-hill aforesaid, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured green, pink, and yellow.

"That the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, of Ralph Sneyd, of Keele Hall, in the said county of Stafford, Esquire, patron of the parish churches of the said parishes of Wolstanton and Keele, and of the Most Noble George Granville, Duke and Earl of Sutherland, patron of the parish church of the said parish of Hanford, have been obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Silverdale and Knutton Heath, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in:
