The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Passengers Act, 1855," it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order in Council, to prescribe such rules and regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit for preserving order, promoting health, and securing cleanliness and ventilation on board of passenger ships proceeding from the United Kingdom to any port or place in Her Majesty's possessions abroad, and the said rules and regulations from time to time in like manner to alter, amend, and revoke, as occasion may require:

And whereas it is expedient to revoke an Order in Council made at a Court held at Windsor, on the sixteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in virtue of the provisions of the "Passengers Act, 1852" (now repealed), and to make a new Order in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty doth, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority vested in Her by the said "Passengers Act, 1855," order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the sixteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, be and the same is hereby revoked; and that the following shall henceforth be the rules for preserving order, promoting health, and securing cleanliness and ventilation, to be observed on board of every "passenger ship" proceeding from the United Kingdom to any port or place in Her Majesty's possessions abroad out of Europe, and not being within the Mediterranean Sea.

1. All passengers who shall not be prevented by sickness or other sufficient cause, to be determined by the surgeon, or in ships carrying no surgeon, by the master, shall rise not later than seven o'clock A.M., at which hour the fires shall be lighted.

2. It shall be the duty of the cook or cooks, appointed under the thirty-ninth section of the said "Passengers Act, 1855," to light the fires, and to take care that they be kept alight during the day; and also to take care that each passenger or family of passengers shall have the use of the fireplace at proper hours, in an order to be fixed by the master.
3. When the passengers are dressed, their beds shall be rolled up.
4. The decks, including the space under the bottom of the berths, shall be swept before breakfast, and all dirt thrown overboard.
5. The breakfast hour shall be from eight to nine o'clock, A.M. Before the commencement of breakfast, all the emigrants, except as hereinbefore excepted, are to be out of bed and dressed, and the beds rolled up, and the deck on which the emigrants live properly swept.
6. The deck shall further be swept after every meal, and after breakfast is concluded shall be also dry holystoned or scraped. This duty, as well as that of cleaning the ladders, hospitals, and round houses, shall be performed by a party who shall be taken in rotation from the adult males above fourteen, in the proportion of five to every one hundred emigrants, and shall be considered as sweepers for the day. But the single women shall perform this duty in their own compartment, where a separate compartment is allotted to them, and the occupant of each berth shall see that his own berth is well brushed out.
7. Dinner shall commence at one o'clock, P.M., and supper at six P.M.
8. The fires shall be extinguished at seven P.M., unless otherwise directed by the master, or required for the use of the sick; and the emigrants shall be in their berths at ten o'clock P.M., except under the permission or authority of the surgeon, or, if there be no surgeon, of the master.
9. On each passenger deck there shall be lit at dusk, and kept burning till daylight, three safety lamps, and such further number as shall allow one to be placed at each of the hatchways used by passengers.
10. No naked light shall be allowed, between decks or in the hold, at any time or on any account.
11. The scuttles and stern ports, if any, shall, weather permitting, be opened at seven o'clock A.M., and kept open till ten o'clock P.M.; and the hatches shall be kept open whenever the weather permits.
12. The coppers and cooking utensils shall be cleaned every day and the cisterns kept filled with water.
13. The beds shall be well shaken and aired on deck, weather permitting, at least twice a week.
14. The bottom boards of the berths, if not fixtures, shall be removed and dry-scrubbed, and, weather permitting, taken on deck at least twice a week.
15. Two days in the week shall be appointed by the master as washing days; but no washing or drying of clothes shall on any account be permitted between decks.
16. On Sunday mornings the passengers shall be mustered at ten o'clock A.M., and will be expected to appear in clean and decent apparel. The Lord's Day shall be observed as religiously as circumstances will admit.

17. No spirits or gunpowder shall be taken on board by any passenger; and if either of those articles be discovered in the possession of a passenger, it shall be taken into the custody of the master during the voyage, and not returned to the passenger until he has landed, or is on the point of landing.
18. No loose hay or straw shall be allowed below for any purpose.
19. No smoking shall be allowed between decks.
20. All gambling, fighting, riotous, disorderly, or quarrelsome conduct, swearing, and violent or indecent language, are strictly prohibited.
21. Fire-arms, swords, and other offensive weapons, shall, as soon as the passengers embark, be placed in the custody of the master.
22. No sailors shall be allowed to remain on the passenger deck among the passengers, except on duty.
23. No passenger shall go to the ship's cook-house without special permission from the master, nor remain in the fore-castle among the sailors on any account.
24. In vessels not expressly required by the said "Passengers Act, 1855," to have on board such ventilating apparatus as therein mentioned, such other provision shall be made for ventilation as shall be required by the emigration officer at the port of embarkation, or, in his absence, by the officers of customs.
25. And to prevent all doubts in the construction of this Order in Council, it is hereby further ordered, that the terms "United Kingdom," "Passenger," "Passenger Ship," "Passenger Deck," and "Master," shall herein have the same significations as are assigned to them respectively in the said "Passengers Act, 1855."

And the Right Honourable Henry Labouchere, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of February, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the churchyard of the parish of ARRETON, in the Isle of Wight, from the first of March to the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the parish churchyard of BRADFORD, in the county of Wilts, and in the burial-grounds of the Baptist Chapel, Zion Chapel, the Wesleyan Chapel, Lady Huntingdon's Chapel, Bearfield, and of the Independent or Congregational Chapel, all in that town, from the first of March to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyard of the parish of BRIDPORT, from the first of March to the third of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyard of DODDINGTON, Cambridge-shire, from the first of February to the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyards of All Saints, the Holy Trinity, and St. Peter, DORCHESTER, from the first of March to the second of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyard of the parish of KIRTON, Suffolk, from the first of February to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the Quakers' burial-ground, in Mount-street, MANCHESTER, from the first of March to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyards of MELCOMBE REGIS, from the first of March to the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

And whereas by an Order in Council of the seventh of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued within the precincts of CHICHESTER Cathedral, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be permitted in the family vault of the Duke of Richmond, situate beneath the Library, which forms the east end of the said cathedral, on condition that the entrance into the vault from the presbytery be closed with stone or brick work, and an external entrance made from the cathedral-yard, and provided that each coffin hereafter deposited be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches at the least in thickness, and be separately entombed in an air-tight manner.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eleventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the first of July next, in the Quakers' Burial-ground, LEEDS, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued from and after the said first of July next in the said burial-ground, except in graves that have never been previously opened in that part of the ground which is to the north and west of the Meeting-house, provided that one body only be buried in each grave.
