FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1856.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 5, 1856.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on Wednesday the 12th of March next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards; with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Ante-Room, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be delivered at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to the Levee, or upon any earlier day between the hours of eleven and four, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levee but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having petitions or addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levee, are to send a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come), to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, on the Monday previous to the Levee; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee; one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

LORD PANMURE has received a Despatch, of which the following is a copy, addressed to his Lordship by General Sir William Codrington, K.C.B.

Sevastopol, February 20, 1856.

MY LORD,

I HAVE to acknowledge the receipt of your telegraphic message from the Judge-Advocate-General in England, in reference to the man of this Army under sentence of death for murder.

There are no palliating circumstances to interfere with the just punishment due to such a crime, committed on a helpless wounded man in hospital. Painful though the duty may be, with a sense of the responsibility attaching to human life, but with the conviction that the decision is just and necessary, I have ordered the execution of this man on Saturday morning next, the 23rd instant, in conformity with the sentence of the court.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) W. J. CODRINGTON,
General Commanding.

The Lord Panmure, &c. &c. &c.

February 23, 1856.

P.S.—This prisoner, Private G. Day, No. 3,577, 77th Regiment, was executed this morning, at seven A.M., on the Piquet House Hill, in the presence of detachments of 1,000 men from each Division of the Army. His body was buried on the spot.

(Signed) W. J. CODRINGTON,
General Commanding.

[The following Order in Council is substituted for an Order which appeared in the Gazette of the 29th February last.]

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of February, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," it is provided, that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehend-
