

issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo for authorizing the election of a coroner for the Lynn District, leaving it to the said petitioners, under the powers of the said Act of Parliament to assign the Norwich District to Mr. Press :

And whereas Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, has been pleased to comply with the prayer of the said petition :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said county of Norfolk be divided into the said two districts in the said petition proposed; that the former of the said districts shall be named the Lynn District, and the latter the Norwich District; that the town of King's Lynn and the Shire-house at Norwich Castle shall be the respective places at which the Courts for the election of coroners shall be holden; and that a writ de coronatore eligendo shall issue for the election of an additional coroner for the said county.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of April, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act, or of the rules to be made in pursuance thereof, shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England and Wales, and within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, such provisions and rules respectively shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order, and any such Order may be, in like manner, from time to time, altered and annulled: and that in and by any such Order Her Majesty may direct by whom any powers or duties incident to the provisions applied under the said Act, or "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," shall and may be exercised with respect to matters in such Court or Courts; and may make any orders or regulations which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such Court or Courts the provisions so applied:

And whereas, it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that all the provisions of the said Act (except such as are hereinafter excepted), and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof, shall extend and apply to the Court of Record for the hundred of SALFORD, in the county of Lancaster:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, within one month after this Order shall have been published in the London Gazette, all the provisions of the said "Common Law Procedure Act, 1851," and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof, with all requisite modifications and alterations with reference to the constitution and peculiar circumstances of the said Court (and except such provisions as are contained in the sections of the said Act, numbered respectively 2, 17, 75, 76, 77, 95, 97, 98, and the whole of the 99th section, except so much thereof as explains the meaning of the word "action," and also except sections 100, 101, 102, 104, 105, and 107, in the copy of the said Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers), shall extend and apply to the said Court of Record for the hundred of Salford;

And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to direct that all the authorities, powers, or duties exercisable by the Court, or a Judge, or any number of Judges, under any of the sections of the said "Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," hereby extended and applied to the said Court of Record for the hundred of Salford, shall, as regards matters and proceedings in the said Court of Record, be exercisable and exercised by such Court, or the Judge thereof, or his deputy duly appointed; that all the authorities, powers, or duties exercisable by a master, or any number of masters, under any of the sections of the said Act as aforesaid, shall, as regards matters and proceedings in the said Court of Record, be exercisable and exercised by the Registrar of the said Court, or his deputy duly appointed; and that all the authorities, powers, or duties exercisable by a Sheriff under any of the sections of the said Act as aforesaid, shall, as regards matters and proceedings in the said Court of record, be exercisable and exercised by the Head Bailiff of the said Court.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of April, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Summary Procedure on Bills of Exchange Act, 1855," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England and Wales, and that within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette such provisions shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order, and that any such Order may be, in like manner, from time to time altered and annulled; and that in and by such Order Her Majesty may direct by whom any powers or duties incident to the provisions applied under the said Act shall and may be exercised with respect to matters in such Court or Courts, and may make any orders or regulations which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such Court or Courts the provisions so applied:

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that all the provisions of the said Act, and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof (except as hereinafter excepted), should be extended and applied to the Court of Record for the hundred of SALFORD, in the county of Lancaster.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that within one month after this Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, all the provisions of the said "Summary Procedure on Bills of Exchange Act, 1855," and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof, shall, with all requisite modifications and alterations with reference to the constitution and peculiar circumstances of the said Court (and except such provisions as are contained in the sections numbered respectively 8, 9, and 10, in the copies of the said Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, and except so much of
