AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of April, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial-ground or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial-grounds or places of burial affected by such representation, shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and Vestry Clerks of the undermentioned parishes, and church of St. Stephen, respectively, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has made two representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the hereinafter-mentioned places:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the thirtieth day of January last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be respectively taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourteenth of March last; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the above recited Act.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued, from and after the fifteenth of this instant April, in the vault beneath St. Stephen's Church, in the parish of St. JOHN THE EVANGELIST, WESTMINSTER, with the exception that the bodies of Miss Burdett Coutts, and Mrs. Brown (the widow of Mr. Brown who is already buried in the said vault), may be interred in the said vault on the following conditions, viz.: that free external ventilation be provided; that the bodies buried be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal six inches at the least in thickness, and be separately entombed in brick work well cemented; and that no other vault be made in the said church;

And it is further ordered, that burials shall be discontinued, from and after the said fifteenth of April, in the Swedish Church, in the parish of St. GEORGE-IN-THE-EAST, and from and after the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the burial-ground attached to the said church.
