And whereas at an adjourned meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held at the Townhall Vestry Room in the said parish, after a public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the tenth day of January last, it was resolved,—

“That the Poor Law Board be requested to issue an Order, under their seal of office, directing that the Act passed on the 5th August, 1850 (13 and 14 Victoria, c. 57), entitled ‘An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks,’ shall be applied to and put in force within this parish, as regards that portion of it only which relates to the appointment of a Vestry Clerk, and to assign to such Vestry Clerk the several duties named in the said Act, and also to make out the poor rates and watch rate, and examine the collector’s accounts and returns of arrears and amounts uncollected from property unoccupied, and attend the audit of the watch rate.”

ARTICLE 2.—That a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

ARTICLE 3.—That in addition to the duties set forth in the said Act, it shall be the duty of the Vestry Clerk for the time being, appointed under the authority of the Statutes in such behalf and this Order for the said parish, to make out the poor rate for the said parish, as and when the same shall become requisite, to procure the same to be allowed, to make all the subsequent entries in the rate books, and to give notices thereof as required by law.

ARTICLE 4.—That a salary of thirty pounds a-year shall be paid to the Vestry Clerk for the time being, appointed under the authority of the Statutes in such behalf and this Order, by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish.

And we do order and direct, that the salary of such Vestry Clerk shall be payable up to the day on which he ceases to hold such office, and no longer, and shall be paid by quarterly payments at the several quarters ending at the usual feast days in the year, namely, Midsummer-day, Michaelmas-day, Christmas-day, and Lady-day, with a proportionate amount to be paid to his executors or administrators, in case he shall die while holding such office.
