In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Tregonebris and Carnebone Fatwork Tin Mining Company.

TO be sold, by auction, at the Star Hotel, in the borough of Helston, in the county of Cornwall, on Thursday the 10th day of July, 1856, at three o'clock in the afternoon, in one lot, by Mr. Nicholas Trevenen Trengrouse, under the direction and with the approbation of the Honourable Sir George Rose, the Master of the High Court of Chancery, charged with the winding up of the above Company.

All that mining property known as the Tregonebris and Carnebone Fatwork Tin Mine, situate in the parish of Wendron, in the said county, together with the engine house, stack, and boiler house, and other requisite and useful buildings and the plant thereon, comprising a new 36-inch cylinder steam engine and new boiler complete, several fathoms of pumps of various sizes underground, water plunger, lift, ropes, kibbles, pulleys, about two tons of new iron, timber, tackle, chains, blocks, smiths' tools, and all other materials now in the said mine.

The mine is held on lease from His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and Duke of Cornwall, for a term of 20 years from the 24th day of June, 1853, and is situate about four miles from the said borough of Helston, in a good tin district. It is bounded on the north-west by Weudron Consols Mine, on the north by Porkellis United Mines, and on the west by Wheal Lovell Mine. It has been worked under its present lease for three years, during which time the adventurers expended thereon, about £7000.

The property may be viewed at any time previous to the sale, and particulars and conditions of sale obtained, on application at the Star Hotel, Helston; of the Auctioneer, Mr. N. T. Trengrouse, Helston; of Mr. William Turquand, the Official Manager, at his office, No. 13, Old Jewry-chambers, London; and of Mr. Arundel Rogers, Solicitor, No. 33, Old Jewry, London.
