WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the Customs of the United Kingdom and of the Isle of Man, and certain laws relating to trade and navigation and the British possessions," it is enacted that "if the legislature, or proper legislative authority, of any of the British possessions abroad shall present an address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to authorize or permit the conveyance of goods or passengers from one part of such possession to another part thereof in other than British ships, it shall thereupon be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, so to authorize the conveyance of such goods or passengers on such terms and under such conditions as to Her Majesty may seem good."

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of June, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Cathedral Churches of Wales," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for regulating the Cathedral Churches of Wales,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, and for regulating the incomes of the dean and canons residentiary of the same church.

"Whereas it was by the said first-recited Act declared and enacted, that by the authority of a scheme prepared by us and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first-recited Act, any arrangement might be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments:

"And whereas, it was by the last recited Act enacted, inter alia, that all the provisions of the two firstly-recited Acts, should, subject to the further enactments therein contained, extend and apply to the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, and to the dignities, offices, canonries, and prebends of the same church, and the respective holders thereof:

"And whereas, it was by the said last-recited Act further declared and enacted, that the average annual incomes of the dean and canons residentiary of the said cathedral church of Saint Asaph should be of the same amounts respectively as are fixed as the average annual incomes of the deans and canons respectively of the cathedral churches of Saint David's and Llandaff, by the hereinfore first-recited Act, namely, to the dean an average annual income of seven hundred pounds, and to each of the canons an average annual income of three hundred and fifty pounds, and that the provisions of the two firstly-recited Acts respecting the augmentation of the incomes of deans and canons should be construed to authorize the augmentation of the incomes of the dean and canons residentiary of the said cathedral church of Saint Asaph out of the common fund in the said first-recited Act mentioned.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Asaph are now seized in fee in their corporate capacity of certain tithes and hereditaments which have been heretofore demised on leases for years, at small annual reserved rents and upon payment of fines:

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and the said dean and chapter have proposed to us, with the consent of their visitor, that the said tithes and hereditaments should be dealt with in manner hereinafter-mentioned, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce as well to the improvement of the said fund as to the permanent benefit of the said dean and chapter, that the same should be dealt with accordingly.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, testified by their having hereunto affixed their corporate seal, we humbly recommend and propose that, in consideration of the money payments hereinafter-mentioned to be paid by us to or on account of the said dean and chapter all the tithes and hereditaments which now belong, either in possession or reversion, to the said dean and chapter (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage, the fabric of the said cathedral church and the consecrated ground appurtenant thereto, and the tithes and hereditaments held by the said dean and chapter, in trust, for the repair of such fabric), and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter shall, upon and from the day on which any order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any other conveyance or assurance in the law, become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall thereupon become and be absolutely seized or possessed of the same, in fee, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from the twenty-fifth day of March now last past.

And we further recommend and propose, that, in consideration of the said transfer and conveyance, there shall, until the said dean and chapter shall have been put by us into possession of real estates sufficient to yield the average annual incomes contemplated by the said recited Acts, be paid by us out of the common fund, in the first-recited Act mentioned, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to the said dean and chapter, the sum of one hundred and ten pounds.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, until the said dean and chapter shall have been so put into possession of estates as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us, on the same days, to the present and every future dean of the said cathedral church of Saint Asaph, such a further sum as, in addition to his share of the corporate revenues of the said chapter, will raise his annual income to the sum of seven hundred pounds, and to each and every canon residentiary of the said cathedral church appointed after the passing of the hereinbefore recited Acts, such a further sum as in addition to his share of the corporate revenues of the said chapter will raise his annual income to the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds, the first payment to the present dean, and to each canon who may have been appointed upon a vacancy occasioned by the death, resignation, or otherwise of a canon appointed before the passing of the said Acts, to be calculated from the date of the appointment of the said dean and such newly appointed canon respectively.

“ And we further recommend and propose that the receipt of the treasurer for the time being of the said dean and chapter shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any and every such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us on account of the half-yearly payments to be made under the authority of such Order as hereinbefore mentioned.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of June, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled “ An Act for carrying into “ effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage,” and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled ‘ An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage,’ and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,’ and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ‘ An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,’ have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Bishop of Oxford for a certain estate belonging to his see.

“ Whereas it was by the secondly and thirdly recited Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts, or of the said first recited Act, any arrangements might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any bishop, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to the see of such bishop, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

“ And whereas the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, is seized, in right of his see, of the hereditaments and premises particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, subject, except as to part of the same, to a subsisting lease thereof, bearing date the fifteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, granted for three lives, of which only one survives, and is now aged forty-six years, or thereabouts, subject to an annual reserved rent of seven pounds, two shillings, and eleven pence.

“ And whereas the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, is now entitled to grant a renewal of the said lease, by the insertion therein of two additional lives; but it is not expedient that such renewal should be granted.

"And whereas, after full inquiry and calculation, we have estimated the fine which ought to be paid for such renewal at the sum of one thousand and three hundred pounds, and the sums which, after fully stating the existing lease, the bishop and his successors might have expected to have derived from the before-mentioned annual reserved rent, and from future fines upon renewals, as equivalent to an annuity of twenty-seven pounds.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund, that the said hereditaments and premises should be transferred from the said see of Oxford, to us, and that a money payment to the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, should forthwith be substituted for his interest in the same.

"And whereas the said bishop has consented to accept a money payment accordingly, and that the same shall be the sum of one thousand and three hundred pounds, being the amount of such fine as aforesaid, together with an annual payment of twenty-seven pounds to himself and to his successors, in respect of the proceeds which he and they might have expected to have received from future renewals, and from the reserved rent hereinbefore mentioned, and thereupon to relinquish all further benefit by renewal of the said lease or otherwise, in respect of the said hereditaments and premises.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose (with the consent of the said Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, testified by his having signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), that from and after the day of the due publication in the London Gazette, of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than such duly gazetted Order, the hereditaments and premises particularly described and set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), and all the right, title, estate, and interest therein, of the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, and of his successors, Bishops of Oxford, shall be and become conveyed and transferred from the said bishop and his successors, Bishops of Oxford, and shall be absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said hereinbefore recited Acts.

"And we further recommend and propose that, as part consideration for the transfer to us of such hereditaments and premises as aforesaid, there shall at the same time be paid by us to the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the aforesaid sum of one thousand and three hundred pounds, and that there shall, as a further consideration, be paid by us to the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, and to his successors in the said see, the said annual sum of twenty-seven pounds by equal half-yearly payments, the first of such half-yearly payments to be made at the expiration of six months from the date of such Order being gazetted as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matter aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"All that part and parcel of the rectory or parsonage of Burford, situate in the parish of Burford, and hamlet of Signett, in the county of Oxford, with the rights, members, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure of William Faulkner, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a certain indenture of lease, bearing date the fifteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and made between the Honourable and Right Reverend Richard, then Bishop of Oxford, of the one part, and the said William Faulkner, of the other part; together with all woods, underwoods, mines, and quarries, of, in, and upon the same hereditaments and premises."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Oxford.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the session of Parliament, holden in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter seventy-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, chapter seventy-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for permanently annexing a canonry residentiary in the cathedral church of St. Asaph to each of the archdeaconries of St. Asaph and Montgomery, in the diocese of St. Asaph.

"Whereas it was by the last-mentioned Act enacted, inter alia, that all the provisions of the firstly-named Act should, subject to the further enactments therein contained, extend and apply to the diocese and cathedral church of St. Asaph, and to the dignities, offices, canonries, and prebends of the said church, and the respective holders thereof.

"And it was by the said Act further enacted, notwithstanding anything in the firstly-mentioned Act contained, that in the chapter of the cathedral church of St. Asaph there should be four canonries residentiary, and no more, and that such canonries should be in the direct patronage of the Bishop of St. Asaph; provided always, and it was thereby further enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be after the passing of the said Act, arrangements should be made by the authority in the firstly-mentioned Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), for permanently annexing two of such four canonries residentiary in the said cathedral church to two archdeaconries in the diocese of St. Asaph.

“And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the sixth day of February, in the same year, the said Archdeaconry of Montgomery, was founded in the diocese of St. Asaph, and it was by the same Order provided, that the said archdeaconry and also the archdeaconry of St. Asaph aforesaid, should be temporarily endowed by augmentation out of the common fund in the hereinbefore firstly named Act mentioned, until arrangements should be proposed by us, and ratified by your Majesty in Council, under the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, for permanently annexing canonries residentiary in the said cathedral church of St. Asaph, to the said archdeaconries.

“And whereas two of the four canonries residentiary in the said cathedral church, are now held by the present archdeacons of the said archdeaconries of St. Asaph and Montgomery respectively.

“We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose with the consent of the Venerable Robert Wickham, Archdeacon of St. Asaph, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that immediately upon and from the day upon which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, shall be duly published in the London Gazette, the canonry residentiary in the cathedral church of St. Asaph, now held by the said Robert Wickham, shall become and be permanently annexed and united to the said Archdeaconry of St. Asaph, and be held by the archdeacon of the said archdeaconry; and also with the consent of the Venerable William Clive, Archdeacon of Montgomery, testified by his having also signed and sealed this scheme, that upon and from the day last-mentioned the canonry residentiary in the same church now held by the said William Clive, shall in like manner become and be permanently annexed and united to the said Archdeaconry of Montgomery, and be held by the archdeacon of the said last-mentioned archdeaconry, and that every future Archdeacon of St. Asaph, and of Montgomery, shall as such archdeacons be entitled to installation to such canonries respectively, and shall be invested with, and so long as they shall respectively remain archdeacons of the said archdeaconries, and no longer, shall hold and enjoy all the rights, privileges, and emoluments of canons of the same church.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said mentioned Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of St. Asaph.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted and declared that, by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first-recited Act, any sum of money which should have been invested in the public funds, or in other security or securities, in trust, for any ecclesiastical body corporate, aggregate or sole, might, upon application in writing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, under the hand and seal of such body corporate, be directed to be sold, and the same should be sold accordingly, and that the produce of such sale should be applied to such purpose, and in such manner, as should appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate, and also that for any like purpose any arrangement might be made, with the consent in writing, under the corporate seal of any bishop, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such bishop, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments; and that the aforesaid provisions relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, did and should include and apply to all monies and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government funds or elsewhere, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals, for or to the credit of, or in trust for, any bishop, dean and chapter, dean, or canon, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise.

"And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend Henry Montagu, Bishop of Carlisle, is seized, in right of his bishoprick, of divers manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, the greater part of which have been demised on leases for lives or years, at small annual reserved rents, and upon payment of fines; and the said bishop is also, in right of his said bishoprick, beneficially interested in, or otherwise entitled to, a sum of two thousand three hundred and nineteen pounds six shillings, consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, ex parte the London and South-Western Railway Company the account of the Bishop of Carlisle.

“ And whereas one of the purposes of the said recited Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and the said bishop has agreed with us that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments (except as hereinafter excepted), sums of stock and cash should be dealt with in the manner hereinafter mentioned, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce as well to the improvement of the said fund, as to the permanent benefit of the said bishoprick, to deal with the same accordingly.

“ Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Henry Montagu, Bishop of Carlisle, testified by his having hereunto affixed his hand and episcopal seal, that in consideration of the money payment hereinafter mentioned to be paid by us to the said bishop and his successors in the said bishoprick all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments which now belong either in possession or reversion to the said Henry Montagu, Bishop of Carlisle, in right of his bishoprick, (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage, the palace or episcopal house of residence, called or known as Rose Castle, and situate at Dalston, in the county of Cumberland, with the grounds thereunto belonging, comprising in the whole twelve acres, two roods, and five perches), and all the estate and interest therein of the said bishop shall, upon and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any other conveyance or assurance in the law, become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall thereupon become and be absolutely seized or possessed of the same in fee, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, be paid by us to the said Henry Montagu, Bishop of Carlisle, and his successors, Bishops of Carlisle, the sum of two thousand two hundred and fifty pounds.

“ And we further recommend and propose that none of the monies or estates to be received or acquired under the provisions of this scheme shall be applicable to the purposes of our common fund, (except only so far as it may be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made under the provisions of this scheme), until or unless by and under the like authority the Bishop of Carlisle for the time being and his successors shall have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates sufficient to secure to such bishop a clear annual income (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, including costs of management), of four thousand and five hundred pounds.

“ And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said Henry Montagu, Bishop of Carlisle, that the said sum of stock so described as aforesaid shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the gazetting of such Order as aforesaid, be transferred or sold out, and the proceeds thereof paid to our account at the Bank of England, to be applied towards the objects of this scheme, and particularly to investment in the purchase of any interest in the estates herein proposed to be transferred to us or any or either of them, or of any other real estates.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Carlisle.
