“ And we further recommend and propose that the receipt of the treasurer for the time being of the said dean and chapter shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any and every such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us on account of the half-yearly payments to be made under the authority of such Order as hereinbefore mentioned.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

“ Whereas it was by the secondly and thirdly recited Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts, or of the said first recited Act, any arrangements might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any bishop, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to the see of such bishop, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

“ And whereas the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, is seized, in right of his see, of the hereditaments and premises particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, subject, except as to part of the same, to a subsisting lease thereof, bearing date the fifteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, granted for three lives, of which only one survives, and is now aged forty-six years, or thereabouts, subject to an annual reserved rent of seven pounds, two shillings, and eleven pence.

“ And whereas the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, is now entitled to grant a renewal of the said lease, by the insertion therein of two additional lives; but it is not expedient that such renewal should be granted.
