CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.—ELECTION and INVESTITURE of EARL FORTESCUE and VISCOUNT PALMERSTON.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, July 12, 1856.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the Knights Companions hereinafter named, in their mantles and collars, assembled in the Green Drawing-room, viz.:

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, the Marquess of Exeter, the Duke of Richmond, the Duke of Buccleuch, the Marquess of Lansdowne, the Marquess of Salisbury, the Duke of Cleveland, Earl de Grey, the Marquess of Abercorn, the Marquess Camden, the Earl of Clarendon, Earl Fitzwilliam, the Earl of Ellesmere, and the Earl of Aberdeen, attended by the Officers of the Order:—The Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate; the Lord Bishop of Oxford, Chancellor; the Honourable and Reverend Gerald Wellesley, Dean of Windsor, Register; Sir Charles George Young, Knight, Garter; and Sir Augustus James William Clifford, Baronet, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

At three o'clock the Knights Companions were called over by Garter, when (Her Majesty and His Royal Highness Prince Albert having passed into the Chapter Room), they proceeded, with the Officers of the Order, into the presence of the Sovereign.

the table on the right hand of Her Majesty, the other Knights Companions took their respective places at the table; the Prelate standing on the right hand of the Sovereign, the Chancellor on the left hand; the Register, Garter, and Black Rod, at the bottom of the table.

The Chancellor then signified to the Chapter Her Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that the two vacant Stalls in the Royal Chapel of Saint George, at Windsor, be filled; and as, by the Statutes, none but a Knight can be elected, the Right Honourable Hugh, Earl Fortescue, was introduced by Garter and Black Rod, and knighted by Her Majesty with the sword of state; and his Lordship, having kissed the Sovereign's hand, retired.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were by him presented to the Sovereign, who commanded him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Right Honourable Hugh, Earl Fortescue, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, his Lordship was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Earls of Ellesmere and Aberdeen, the two junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion), and by Black Rod.

Earl Fortescue, kneeling near the Sovereign, Garter, on his knee, presented the Garter, and Her Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness Prince Albert and His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, the two senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on his Lordship's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next, in like manner, presented the Ribband and George, and Her Majesty, assisted as before, put the same over his Lordship's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition; the Earl then again kissed Her Majesty's hand, and having received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, retired.

The Chapter then proceeded to a second election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were presented to the Sovereign, when the Right Honourable Henry John, Viscount Palmerston, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, was, by Her Majesty's command, declared duly elected, and his Lordship was introduced and invested with the Garter and the Ribband and George, with the like ceremonies.

The Chapter being ended, Garter, by Her Majesty's command, again called over the Knights Companions, who, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign with the usual reverences.

And this Court doth hereby order, direct, and appoint the following places to be standings for hackney coaches, chariots, or cabriolets to stand and ply for hire, not exceeding the number set opposite to such respective place; that is to say:

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and in the Matter of the Caxton Life Assurance Society.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Vice-Chancellor Sir William Page Wood will, at his chambers, No. 11, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, on the 19th day of July instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, or at such other adjourned time or place as he may then or afterwards fix, appoint an Official Manager of this Company; and further, that all parties interested are entitled to attend, at such time and place, and to offer proposals or objections as to any such appointment.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act to dissolve the National Land Company and to dispose of the lands and property belonging to the Company, and to wind up the undertaking, and of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849.

WILLIAM GOODCHAP, of Walbrook House, Walbrook, in the city of London, the Official Manager appointed to wind up the affairs of this Company, do hereby give notice that under and by virtue of the power and authority for that purpose delegated to me by Richard Richards, Esq., the Master of the High Court of Chancery charged with the winding up of this Company, I shall, on Monday, the 18th day of August next, and such respective days as I shall consider necessary or expedient and from time to time appoint, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, on the said days, hold sittings at the School House, situate on the Minster Lovel Estate, in the county of Oxford, in the cases in which I have received notice according to the provisions of the first above-mentioned Act, from any person or persons to whom any part of the lands and hereditaments of the Minster Lovel Estate, situate in the parish of Minster Lovel, in the county of Oxford, in the said last-mentioned Act referred to has been allotted in manner in the said mentioned Act, relinquishing all title to such allotment or allotments and claiming compensation for his, her, or their expenditure and loss in respect thereof, to proceed to ascertain by the best and most economical means in my power whether and to what amount the value of the capital and labour expended by such allottee or allottees on his, her, or their allotment or allotments, and other the loss incurred by him, her, or them, by reason of his, her, or their occupation of such allotment or allotments, have exceeded the value to such allottee or allottees of his, her, or their occupation thereof, and the advances of aid-money, seed, stock, or goods made to him, her, or them out of the funds of the Company, and to ascertain the amount of such excess; and also to investigate and adjudicate upon the title of every person who shall come before me at such time or times, and in such manner as I shall direct, claiming title to any allotment or any part of the said lands and hereditaments at Minster Lovel aforesaid, as having at any time been made in accordance, or in presumed accordance, with the rules of the Company for the time being supposed to be in force, and to whom no conveyance or demise thereof has been made in manner in the said last Act mentioned. And further to determine the sum (if any) by way of rent for his past occupation, to be paid by each and every such claimant who shall so prove his title, after making all just allowances, including an allowance for the subscriptions paid by such claimant. And I further give notice, that any of the contributories or alleged contributories of the said Company will be at liberty to attend such sittings respectively, and that any person or persons claiming any such right or title as aforesaid, must come in before me at the time and place aforesaid, and establish such claim, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Act to dissolve the National Land Company.

Dated this 4th day of July, 1856.

William Goodchap, Official Manager.
