“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the

“And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said twelfth canonry in the said cathedral church (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became vested in us on the vacancy of the said canonry, which occurred on or about the first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, by the decease of the Reverend John Savile Ogle, the then holder of the said canonry, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

“And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

“We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments, heretofore belonging to the said twelfth canonry, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.
