FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 1856.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to extend the provisions of the Acts for the augmentation of benefices," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to extend the provisions of the Acts for the augmentation of benefices," have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making a better provision for the cure of souls in the several parishes of Folkton, Hunmanby, North Burton otherwise Burton Fleming, and Muston, all in the county and diocese of York.

"Whereas it is by the said firstly-recited Act enacted that arrangements may be made by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by schemes prepared by us and Orders of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same) for the apportionment of the income of two benefices belonging to the same patron, between the incumbents or ministers of such benefices, or the churches or chapels connected therewith, with a proviso that no such arrangement shall be made with respect to benefices in lay patronage without the consent of the respective patrons, nor in any case so as to prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent, nor without the consent of the bishop of the diocese.

"And whereas it is by the same Act enacted that we shall in such schemes as aforesaid recommend and propose all such measures as may, upon further enquiry, which we are thereby authorized to make, appear to us to be necessary for the purpose of carrying the same Act into full effect, with a proviso that nothing in the same Act contained shall be construed to prevent us from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations as to matters of detail and regulation as shall not be substantially repugnant to any provision of the said Act.

"And whereas it is by the said secondly recited Act enacted, that the provisions of the said Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign hereinbefore particularly referred to, shall apply to any lands, tithes, tithe rent charges, or other hereditaments, or sources of income of what nature or kind soever, belonging to such benefices, and shall apply to any number of benefices belonging to the same patron including any united benefice and that every church or chapel possessed of any endowment, or capable of receiving the same, and also any sinecure rectory so far as regards the transfer of its endowments, or any portion thereof, to any benefice, shall be deemed a benefice for the purpose of such arrangements, or any of them.

"And whereas the rectory of Folkton, within the said county, and diocese of York, heretofore deemed a rectory without cure of souls, having been held together with the vicarage dependent thereon for the period of twenty years previous to the passing of the said firstly recited Act, is considered to have become by virtue of a provision to that effect therein contained, permanently united with the said vicarage and a rectory with cure of souls.

"And whereas the said rectory of Folkton is now vacant by reason of the death of the Reverend Herbert Phillips, the last incumbent thereof, on the twenty-third day of April last past.

"And whereas the patronage or right of presentation to the said rectory belongs to Robert Mitford, Esquire, a Rear-Admiral in your Majesty's Navy, who is also patron of the vicarage of Hunmanby, with the chapelry or perpetual curacy of Fordon thereto annexed, of the perpetual curacy of North Burton, otherwise Burton Fleming, and of the vicarage of Muston, all which said benefices are situate within the said county and diocese of York.

“ And whereas the said Robert Mitford as such patron of the said several benefices as aforesaid, is desirous to avail himself of the hereinbefore recited provisions, so far as they extend for the purpose of providing a better endowment for the said vicarage of Hunmanby, perpetual curacy of North Burton, otherwise Burton Fleming, and vicarage of Muston, by means of the apportionment and appropriation of part of the lands and hereditaments now constituting the landed endowments of the said rectory of Folkton; between the said vicarage of Hunmanby and perpetual curacy of Burton Fleming, and by the appropriation of a portion of the incomes respectively arising from the residue of the said lands and hereditaments remaining to the said rectory of Folkton, and from that part of the said lands and hereditaments hereinafter proposed to be appropriated to the said vicarage of Hunmanby, by way of annual money payments to the vicar of Muston for the time being, and his successors, so as to leave to the rector for the time being of the said rectory of Folkton, an endowment adequate to the duties and services connected therewith, and also by the appropriation and apportionment of the endowments of the said chapelry of Fordon unto and between the said vicarage of Hunmanby, and perpetual curacy of Burton Fleming, in manner hereinafter contained, and hath applied to us with the consent and concurrence of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thomas, Lord Archbishop of York, within whose diocese the said benefices are respectively situate, and of the Reverend Robert Mitford Taylor, Clerk, the present Vicar of the said vicarage of Hunmanby with the chapelry of Fordon annexed, in order that the requisite arrangements may be made under the authority of the said Acts, and it appears to us upon further enquiry to be reasonable and expedient that such arrangements should be made.

“ We, therefore, with the consent of the said Robert Mitford, Thomas, Lord Archbishop of York, and Robert Mitford Taylor, Vicar of Hunmanby, with the chapelry of Fordon annexed, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose that the said rectory of Folkton, if not already permanently united with the said vicarage of Folkton by virtue of the first hereinbefore recited Act, shall, by means of this scheme, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be permanently united with the said vicarage, and shall be a rectory with cure of souls; that the several closes, pieces, or parcels of land and hereditaments mentioned and described in the first and second columns of the schedule hereto annexed, as the lands at present belonging to and forming part of the endowments of the rectory of Folkton aforesaid, and which said lands and hereditaments are delineated and described, with numbers corresponding with those referring thereto, in the first column of the said schedule on a map or plan, intituled “ A plan of estates appropriated for making a better provision for the cure of souls in the several parishes of Folkton, Hunmanby, North Burton otherwise Burton Fleming, and Muston, all in the county and diocese of York,” which said plan has been sealed by us, and signed and sealed by the said Robert Mitford, Thomas, Lord Archbishop of York, and Robert Mitford Taylor, and is intended to be forthwith deposited in the registry of the said diocese of York, shall, as from the said twenty-third day of April now last past, become and be apportioned and appropriated between the several benefices mentioned in the third, fourth, and fifth columns of the said schedule, in the manner herein and hereinafter set forth and charged as to part thereof as hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

“ That the several lands and hereditaments in the parish of Folkton and townships of Folkton and Flixton, and in the parish of Middleton, containing together seven hundred and twelve acres, one rood, and thirty-two perches, or thereabouts, and mentioned or described in the third column of the said schedule, shall, as from the said twenty-third day of April last, remain to and be considered as forming part of the endowment of the said rectory of Folkton, subject, nevertheless, and charged at all times for ever thereafter, with the payment to the Vicar, for the time being, of the parish of Muston, in the said county of York, and his successors, of the annual sum of fifty pounds, to be paid as to a proportionate part thereof, calculated from the said twenty-third day of April last, on the twenty-ninth day of September next, and thenceforward by half yearly payments on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, and the said vicar and his successors to have all such and the like powers of distress and other remedies to enforce payment of the said annual sum or any part thereof as landlords are by law entitled to have and exercise in respect of rent reserved upon a lease and in arrear.

“ And further, that the several lands and hereditaments in the townships of Folkton and Flixton aforesaid, containing together nine hundred and seventy-nine acres and twenty-five perches, or thereabouts, mentioned or described in the fourth column of the said schedule shall, as from the said twenty-third day of April last, be considered as separated from the said rectory, and become and be for ever thereafter annexed to and form part of the endowment of the vicarage of Hunmanby aforesaid, subject, nevertheless, and charged at all times for ever thereafter with the payment to the vicar for the time being of the parish of Muston aforesaid, and his successors, of the annual sum of fifty pounds to be paid as to a proportionate part thereof, calculated from the said twenty-third day of April last, on the twenty-ninth day of September next, and thenceforward by half yearly payments, on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, and the said vicar and his successors to have all such and the like powers of distress and other remedies to enforce payment of the said annual sum, or any part thereof, as landlords are by law entitled to have and exercise in respect of rent reserved upon a lease, and in arrear.

“ And further, that the several lands and hereditaments in the parish of Thwing, and township of Octon, known by the name of Thwing Farm, and containing one hundred and two acres, one rood, and twelve perches, or thereabouts, mentioned or described in the fifth column of the said Schedule, shall, as from the said twenty-third day of April last, be considered as separated from the said rectory, and become and be for ever thereafter annexed to and form part of the endowment of the perpetual curacy of North Burton, otherwise Burton Fleming aforesaid.

“ And we further humbly recommend and propose that, as from the said twenty-third day of April last, all that close, piece, or parcel of land or field, containing twenty-six acres, three roods, and thirty-three perches, or thereabouts, situate in the parish of Hunmanby, and marked A on the map or plan so deposited in the said registry of the diocese of York, as aforesaid, now and heretofore held by the vicar for the time being of the said vicarage of Hunmanby, in right of the said chapelry of Fordon, shall become and be for ever thereafter annexed to, and form part of, the endowment of the said vicarage, independently of the said chapelry, and that all and singular other the endowments and emoluments of the said chapelry heretofore held by the vicar for the time being of the said vicarage, in right of the same chapelry, shall immediately from and after the publication of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be separated from the said vicarage, and be transferred and become, and be for ever thereafter annexed to and form part of, the endowment of the perpetual curacy of North Burton, otherwise Burton Fleming aforesaid. Provided always, that the provision hereinbefore proposed for the augmentation of the said perpetual curacy of North Burton, otherwise Burton Fleming, out of the emoluments and endowments of the said chapelry of Fordon, shall not take effect unless and until the said chapelry of Fordon shall, by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made in pursuance or exercise of the powers and authorities of the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and six, or some other Act or Acts of Parliament passed for that purpose, be disunited from the said vicarage of Hunmanby, and annexed to the said perpetual curacy of North Burton, otherwise Burton Fleming. And in default thereof, and until the publication of such last-mentioned Order, all and singular the emoluments and endowments of the said chapelry shall continue to be held with the said vicarage, as the same are now held, or be considered as being held with, or as having reverted to, the vicar for the time being of the same vicarage.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect with certain modifications the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling Ecclesiastical Corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for enabling Ecclesiastical Corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to us in a certain lease of a coal mine about to be granted by the incumbent of the Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Martin Caerphilly, in the county of Glamorgan.

"Whereas by the said last-recited Act it was enacted, that it should be lawful for any Ecclesiastical Corporation, aggregate or sole (with certain exceptions, which do not include incumbents of consolidated chapelries), from time to time, with the consent or consents thereby required, to grant or demise by lease, in manner therein-after mentioned, any mines, minerals, quarries, or beds belonging to such corporation, together with the right of working, or of opening and working the same.

"And whereas by the same Act it was further enacted, that in case of any lease of mines, minerals, quarries, or beds granted thereunder, such portion of the improved value accruing under such lease as by the authority provided in the first recited Act should be determined, not being more than three fourth parts nor less than one moiety of such improved value, should forthwith, and from time to time as the same should accrue, be paid to us, and should be subject to the provisions relating to monies payable to us.

"And whereas, with the consent required by the said Act, and otherwise in accordance with the provisions thereof, it is proposed by the Reverend Judah Jones, the present incumbent of Saint Martin, Caerphilly, to grant or demise by lease certain beds of coal, situate in the parish of Eglwysilan, in the county of Glamorgan, belonging to him as such incumbent.

"And whereas the improved value to accrue under the lease so proposed to be granted as aforesaid will, according to [the meaning of the same Act, be the whole of the rents, royalties, or other reservations which will become payable by virtue of such lease.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that three fourth parts of the whole net amount of the reservation or reservations to be made in the said lease so to be granted, whether consisting of rent, royalty, or otherwise, shall, by such lease, be made directly payable to us; and that we shall have all the like remedies in respect of such three fourth parts of any such reservation as aforesaid as if the same were a separate rent reserved to us as lessors or grantors and reversioners of the premises comprised in such lease, independently of the rights and remedies of the said Judah Jones and his successors, incumbents of the said consolidated chapelry, in respect of the remaining one fourth part thereof, without any priority or preference between us and the incumbents of the said consolidated chapelry for the time being: And, further, that we shall have full benefit and advantage, either jointly with or separately from the said Judah Jones and his successors, incumbents of the said consolidated chapelry for the time being, of all or any of the covenants, conditions, and agreements in the said lease to be contained on the lessee's part, in like manner as if we had been grantors, lessors, and reversioners as aforesaid, and as in such lease shall be expressed; and that for effectuating such objects the said lease shall and may be framed in such manner, and contain all such clauses and provisions as we shall approve, and shall have full force accordingly, any rule of law, statute, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose, that we be authorized to apply, from time to time, if we shall think fit, all or any part of the monies which shall be received by us by virtue or on account of the reservation or reservations aforesaid (after deducting therefrom all costs, charges, and expenses which we may have incurred in respect of the premises) towards making better provision for the cure of souls within the limits of the Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Martin, Caerphilly.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been given to the said Judah Jones, as such incumbent as aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the first recited Act, and he has made no objection thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Llandaff.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling Ecclesiastical Corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for enabling Ecclesiastical Corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to us in a certain lease of a coal mine about to be granted by the perpetual curate of the District Chapel of Saint James, Chapelthorpe, in the county of York.

"Whereas by the said last-recited Act it was enacted, that it should be lawful for any Ecclesiastical Corporation, aggregate or sole (with certain exceptions, which do not include perpetual curates), from time to time, with the consent or consents thereby required, to grant or demise by lease, in manner thereinafter mentioned, any mines, minerals, quarries, or beds belonging to such corporation, together with the right of working, or of opening and working the same.

"And whereas by the same Act it was further enacted, that in case of any lease of mines, minerals, quarries, or beds granted thereunder, such portion of the improved value accruing under such lease, as by the authority provided in the first recited Act should be determined, not being more than three fourth parts nor less than one moiety of such improved value, should forthwith, and from time to time as the same should accrue, be paid to us, and should be subject to the provisions relating to monies payable to us.

"And whereas, with the consent required by the said Act, and otherwise in accordance with the provisions thereof, it is proposed by the Reverend John Heaton Micklethwait, the present perpetual curate of Saint James, Chapelthorpe aforesaid, to grant or demise by lease a certain bed of coal situate in the township of Dodsworth, in the said county, belonging to him as such perpetual curate.

"And whereas the improved value to accrue under the lease so proposed to be granted as afore-

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that three fourth parts of the whole net amount of the reservation or reservations to be made in the said lease so to be granted, whether consisting of rent, royalty, or otherwise, shall by such lease be made directly payable to us, and that we shall have all the like remedies in respect of such three fourth parts of any such reservation as aforesaid, as if the same were a separate rent reserved to us as lessors or grantors and reversioners of the premises comprised in such lease, independently of the rights and remedies of the said John Heaton Micklethwait and his successors, perpetual curates of Saint James, Chapelthorpe, in respect of the remaining one fourth part thereof, without any priority or preference between us and the perpetual curates of Saint James, Chapelthorpe for the time being: And, further, that we shall have full benefit and advantage, either jointly with, or separately from, the said John Heaton Micklethwait and his successors, perpetual curates of Saint James, Chapelthorpe, for the time being, of all or any of the covenants, conditions, and agreements in the said lease to be contained on the lessee's part, in like manner as if we had been grantors, lessors, and reversioners as aforesaid, and as in such lease shall be expressed; and that, for effectuating such objects, the said lease shall and may be framed in such manner and contain all such clauses and provisions as we shall approve, and shall have full force accordingly, any rule of law, statute, or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose, that we be authorized to apply, from time to time, if we shall think fit, all or any part of the monies which shall be received by us by virtue or on account of the reservation or reservations aforesaid (after deducting therefrom all costs, charges, and expenses which we may have incurred in respect of the premises) towards making better provision for the cure of souls within the present limits of the District Chapelry of Saint James, Chapelthorpe aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been given to the said John Heaton Micklethwait, as such perpetual curate as aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the first-recited Act, and he has made no objection thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, and also of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, and also of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for amending and explaining an Order of your Majesty in Council, relating to the prebend of Shipton-under-Wychwood, in the cathedral church of Salisbury.

"Whereas by the firstly mentioned Act it was enacted, with an especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements might from time to time be made, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by a duly published Order of your Majesty in Council), for improving the value, or making better provision for the spiritual duties, of ill-endowed parishes or districts, by means of such exchange of advowsons or of such other alterations in the exercise of patronage as might be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the bishop, in every such case. And it was by the Act secondly above mentioned declared and enacted, that it should be competent to the authority provided in the herein firstly mentioned Act, to make arrangements under and according to the provisions of the same Act, for improving the value, or making a better provision for the spiritual duties, of ill-endowed parishes or districts, by means of the exchange of advowsons or other alterations in the exercise of patronage, notwithstanding that such advowsons, or any or either of them, should be vested in or belong to any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole.

"Whereas, with a view to enabling us to make the tithes or other property belonging to any prebend, which is permanently annexed to any professorship, more conducive to the spiritual welfare of the parishes or places dependent thereon or connected therewith, it was by the said thirdly-mentioned Act enacted, that by the authority in the therein secondly and thirdly recited Acts provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), it should be lawful, with the consent in writing of the patron of any such professorship, to make any arrangement for vesting in us all or any of the lands, tithes, tenements, or hereditaments, or other endowments, of such prebend, and to substitute for the same any just and reasonable money payment to the holder thereof, and all such future perpetual annual payments to his successors in the same dignity or office, as should be deemed by the like authority to be fit and proper; and also with the consent in writing of the patron of any such professorship, to make any arrangement for vesting in us all or any of the lands, tithes, tenements, or hereditaments, or other endowments, of such prebend, and to substitute for the same any just and reasonable money payment to the holder thereof, and all such future perpetual annual payments to his successors in the same dignity or office, as should be deemed by the like authority to be fit and proper, and also with the consent in writing of such patron to make any arrangement which should be deemed fit as to the future exercise of the patronage of any benefice, with cure of souls, held by the holder of such prebend; but that no such alterations should take any effect during the time that the present holder of such prebend should hold the same, except with the consent in writing thereto of such holder.

"Whereas, under the provisions of the said thirdly mentioned Act, an Order was made by your Majesty in Council on the seventeenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, setting forth and ratifying a scheme prepared by us for prospectively vesting in us for the purposes of the herein-lastly mentioned Act the property then forming the endowment of the said prebend of Shipton-under-Wychwood, and substituting for the same a money payment to the future holders thereof; and it was by the same scheme and Order provided that all the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments situate in the parish of Shipton-under-Wychwood, in the county of Oxford, or in the townships or hamlets of Ascott - under - Wychwood, Ramsden, Leafield, Milton, and Lyneham, in the same county, then belonging to the said prebend (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage) should subject to any lease or leases thereof or of any part or parts thereof, then legally subsisting, be transferred to and become vested in us for the purposes in the said scheme and Order mentioned; that is to say: that the net annual proceeds of such lands, tithes, and hereditaments should be carried in our books to the credit of a fund to be called the Shipton Fund, in trust (after providing as therein mentioned for an annual payment of one hundred pounds to the Professor of Civil Law in the University of Oxford) to be annually divided into thirteen equal parts, and to be distributed in the proportions of one of such parts to the vicar of Shipton-under-Wychwood aforesaid, two of such parts to each of the incumbents of the chapelries or districts of Ascott, Leafield, and Ramsden respectively, and six of such parts to the vicar of Shipton towards providing a curate for the townships of Milton and Lyneham aforesaid, or if the said townships or any parts thereof should at any time be formed into an ecclesiastical district then to the incumbent of such district. And it was by the same scheme and Order further provided that upon the then next vacancy of the said professorship, the advowson of and right of presentation to the vicarage of Shipton-under-Wychwood aforesaid should be transferred to and become vested in and be exercised by the Bishop of Oxford, for the time being, and his successors, Bishops of Oxford, for ever.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the scheme, so ratified as aforesaid, was prepared and agreed to under the belief that the appropriation thereby made of a portion of the net proceeds of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, in the proportions therein mentioned, was such as would raise the incomes of the incumbents or ministers of the said several benefices or churches to certain relative amounts, differing materially from those which, according to the provisions of the said scheme and Order, will be the case; and it appears to us to be expedient, with a view to the making better provision for the spiritual duties of the said parish and townships and districts respectively being ill endowed within the extent and meaning of the said Acts, that the provisions of the said ratified scheme, in respect to the appropriation thereby made for the incumbents or ministers of the said benefices or churches should be varied as hereafter mentioned, and also that the patronage of the said townships or hamlets as well as of the said vicarage should become vested in the bishop of the diocese for the time being.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of your Majesty testified by the signing and sealing of this scheme, by the First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury, we humbly recommend and propose that the provisions of the said scheme, so ratified as aforesaid, which relate to the appropriation in thirteen parts of a portion of the proceeds of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments to the benefices and churches therein specified shall be altered and amended so that the number of parts into which such portion shall be divided shall be twenty-three instead of thirteen, and that there shall be paid by us to the vicar of Shipton-under-Wychwood for the time being three of such parts, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the chapelries or districts of Ascott, Leafield, and Ramsden respectively, four of such parts, and to the incumbent or perpetual curate of the ecclesiastical district church of Milton-cum-Lyneham, eight of such parts.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend William Edward Dickson Carter, Vicar of the said vicarage of Shipton under Wychwood, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that upon and from the day upon which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any other conveyance or assurance in the law, the patronage of and right of nomination to the said benefices or churches of Ascott, Leafield, and Ramsden, and of the incumbency of the ecclesiastical district formed out of the said townships of Milton and Lyneham, or out of any parts thereof, shall be transferred from the vicar of Shipton under Wychwood and his successors, to and become vested in and may be exercised by the Bishop of Oxford for the time being, and his successors Bishops of Oxford for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the dioceses of Oxford and Salisbury.
