At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 21st day of August, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to make further provision and to amend and render more effectual three Acts passed in the fifty-eighth and fifty-ninth years of His late Majesty, and in the third year of His present Majesty, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and in pursuance of all other powers or authorities in the Church Building Acts, have duly made and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Swansea, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Saint David's, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the said parish of Swansea (which said church was built by subscription under the provisions of the Act secondly hereinafter mentioned), under and by virtue of the power and authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and also under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled

'An Act to make further provision and to amend and render more effectual three Acts passed in the fifty-eighth and fifty-ninth years of His late Majesty, and in the third year of His present Majesty, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and of all other powers or authorities in this behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named or called 'THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF THE HOLY TRINITY, SWANSEA,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The boundary line commences at the southern end of High-street, opposite to College-street, and proceeds northerly along the middle of High-street, as far as Ebenezer-street; then turns westerly and proceeds along the middle of Ebenezer-street and Craig-street as far as Evan-place; then turns southerly and proceeds along the middle of Evan-place, passing the western end of Quarry-street to a footpath running at the foot of the hill called Craig-footpath, and then along the middle of that footpath south-westerly to a road now forming and running north-westerly into Craig-place; then turns southerly and proceeds along the middle of Craig-place, Mount Pleasant, and Dynevor-place, into Gower-street; then turns easterly and proceeds along the middle of Gower-street and College-street to the southern end of High-street, to the point where the boundary line commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that baptisms and churchings should be performed in the said church of the Holy Trinity, at Swansea aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Connop, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint David's, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, and also the consents of the Reverend Charles Bridges, late of Weymouth, but now of Hinton Martell, in the county of Dorset, Clerk, the Reverend Edmund Hollond, of Benhall, in the county of Suffolk, Clerk, William Long, of Sturts Hall, in the county of Suffolk, Esquire, and James Morgan Strachan, of Teddington, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, Patrons of the
