NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, October 16, 1856.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now making for the intended distribution of proceeds arising from the slave schooner, name unknown, supposed to be the Oregon or Mercedeta, captured on the 30th August, 1854, by Her Majesty's ship Crane.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Independent Chapel, situated at Damerham-lane, in the parish of Damerham, in the county of Wilts, in the district of Fordingbridge, in the counties of Hants and Wilts, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 19th day of September, 1856, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 30th day of September, 1856.
Robt. M. Davy, Superintendent Registrar of the district of Fordingbridge.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the United Presbyterian Chapel, situated in Fisher-street, in the parish of Saint Mary, Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, in the district of Carlisle, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 13th day of October, 1856, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 15th day of October, 1856.

Geo. Mounsey, Superintendent Registrar.

Chester Waterworks Company.

(Extension and Amendment or Repeal of Act; Increase and Regulation of Capital; Power to Borrow Money; to Sell or Lease their undertaking to the Corporation of Chester; and further powers.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers, provisions, and regulations, or some of them, of an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for better supplying the inhabitants of the city of Chester with water," or otherwise to repeal the same, and to reincorporate the Company incorporated by the said Act, under the name and style of "The Chester Waterworks Company," with the same or other and more extensive powers.

And it is intended by the said Act to confer upon the said Company the following, or some of the following, among other powers; that is to say: To construct and maintain all such reservoirs, filtering beds, mains, pipes, and other works, as may be necessary for supplying efficiently with water the inhabitants of the borough and city of Chester, and county of the said city, and also the several parishes, townships, and places following, in the suburbs of the said borough and city, and county of the said city, or some of them, or some parts thereof; that is to say: the parishes of Saint John the Baptist, Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, Saint Oswald, the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Backford, Christleton, Plemondstall, and the several townships or places of Bache, Blacon-cum-Crabwall, Backford, Boughton (otherwise Great Boughton), Chester Castle, Christleton, Claverton, Hoole, Huntington, Littleton, Marlston-cum-Lache, Great Mollington, Little Mollington, Moston, Newton by Chester, Rowton, and Upton, all in the county of Chester; the parish of Hawarden, and the several townships or places of Bretton, Broughton, Sealand, and Saltney, in the county of Flint.

To enable the Company to regulate their capital, to authorise the conversion and consolidation of all or any part of the shares of such Company into a general capital stock, to fix and regulate the scale of voting in respect of such shares or stock, to confirm the existing preference shares of the Company, to raise further capital for the general purposes of the Company, by the creation and issuing of new shares, with or without a preference attached thereto, and also to borrow money by bonds, mortgages, annuities, or otherwise, on the security of all or any part of the property belonging to the Company, or to be hereafter acquired by them, and the rents, rates, assessments, charges and duties, which they are at present authorised to levy, or which they shall be authorised to levy by the said intended Act.
