Dolanog; then easterly along the middle of that road until it meets the road diverging towards the south-east, and leading to Pen-caer-gof and Tau-y-coed, along the middle of which road the boundary line then proceeds easterly until it crosses a stream flowing eastward of Rhyd-y-gro into the River Banw; then along the middle of that stream southerly until it reaches the said river and the boundary line of the township of Gwanynog Uchaf; then proceeds easterly and northerly along such boundary as far as the township of Cynnufa, at the junction of the Hafesp and Ty Newydd Streams, and from thence in a northerly and north-westerly direction along the boundary line of the consolidated chapelry of Pont Robert as far as the River Mechan or Fyrnwy, and crossing such river to the Dolwar Brook, the point at which the boundary line of the said consolidated chapelry of Pont Dolanog commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured green, pink, yellow, and lilac.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph, and also patron in right of his see of the parish churches of the said parishes of Llanvihangel-Yn-Gwynfa, Llanervul, Llanvair-Caereinion, and Llangyniew, has been obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Pont Dolanog, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that the said Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, is willing, and has agreed, testified as aforesaid (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinafter mentioned), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint John, at Pont Dolanog aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by, the bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph, for the time being.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint John, at Pont Dolanog, in the parish of Llanvihangel-Yn-Gwynfa, to be named "THE CONSOLIDATED CHAPELRY OF PONT DOLANOG," be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Act; and that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, shall be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by the Bishop of St. Asaph for the time being, he being the person mentioned in such agreement; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of St. Asaph.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of October, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the thirteenth of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in Rector's Gill Cemetery, in the parish of BISHOPWEARMOUTH, and by another Order in Council of the twenty-fourth of June last, the use of certain vaults and brick graves in the said cemetery, belonging to the persons named in such Order, was allowed, on certain conditions, and provided that the only bodies interred were those of the wives and husbands of the persons already buried therein, and it seems fit that the said last-mentioned Order be varied ; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the bodies of the parents and children also of those already buried in the said vaults and brick graves, be allowed to be interred therein, under the same conditions.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eleventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the parish churchyard of LAMINSTER, from and after the first of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, except in vaults or brick graves in which each coffin should be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued forthwith in the said churchyard, except in vaults or brick graves which existed at the date of the above-mentioned Order in Council, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-first of August last, burials were directed to be discontinued in the MANCHESTER GENERAL CEMETERY AT HARPURHEY, with certain exceptions, and except so far as was compatible with certain regulations therein contained, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that between the words "no grave to be re-opened," and the words "unless to bury another member of the same family," in such regulations, the following words be inserted, viz., "except in accordance with the seventeenth of the regulations for new burial-grounds."

And whereas by an Order in Council of the nineteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the parish churchyard of MINSTER, in the Isle of Sheppy, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that now existing vaults and brick graves in the said churchyard be excepted from the operation of the said Order, on condition that, when required, they can be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, and be separately entombed in an air-tight manner.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued forthwith in the churchyard of RINGWOOD, Hants, within four yards of all houses in the Friends' Burial-ground, and in the Independent Chapel within four yards of the day school, and from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, wholly in the said churchyard, and in the Presbyterian Unitarian Chapel Burial-ground, and in the Independent Chapel Burial-ground, all in Ringwood; and it seems fit that the said order be varied; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu of the above directions, that with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, burials be forthwith discontinued in all that part of the said parish churchyard which lies to the south of the church; also, in the burial-grounds of the Independent Chapel and Presbyterian Unitarian Chapel, within four yards of the school; and that from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, burials be wholly discontinued in the parish churchyard and in the burial-grounds of the Presbyterian Unitarian Chapel, of the Independent Chapel, and in the Friends' Burial-ground attached to the Wesleyan Chapel; and it is further ordered, that now existing vaults and brick graves in all the above burial-grounds be used on the following conditions, viz., that, when required they be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in; that each coffin be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal four inches thick, and separately entombed in brick or stone work, cemented in an air-tight manner; and that the only bodies interred be those of the husbands, wives, parents, unmarried children, and brothers and sisters of those already buried therein.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the eighteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in Christ Churchyard, North Shields, and in the Castle Burial-ground, TYNEMOUTH, from and after the first of July then next, and such period has since been extended to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials may be allowed in the vaults and brick graves in existence on the said eighteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the above-mentioned yard and burial-ground, provided that such vaults and graves be opened, when required, without disturbing soil that has been buried in, and that each coffin be embedded in powdered charcoal and separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented, and that the only bodies buried be those of the husbands, wives, parents, unmarried children, and brothers and sisters of those already interred therein; and (as regards the Castle Burial-ground) provided that no interment take place within five yards of the canteen.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the 4th year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of Postage," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time and at any time after the passing of that Act, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and by Warrant as aforesaid to appoint at what time the rates that might be payable were to be paid.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power and authority in them for such purpose vested in and by the said before-mentioned Act of Parliament, did by a certain Warrant in writing, under the hands of three of them the said Commissioners, bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury-chambers, the 28th day of November, 1844, after reciting amongst other things the said before-mentioned Act of Parliament, and that it was desirable to make further regulations in respect of the postage of letters and newspapers sent by the post from the United Kingdom, or any of the other places thereinafter mentioned to Bombay or Madras or Calcutta, in the East Indies, and forwarded by packet-boats or private ships to any place to the eastward of such port or place, or received by packet-boats or private ships at Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta, from any place to the eastward of such port or place, and forwarded by the post to the United Kingdom or any of the other places therein-after-mentioned, the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury did, amongst other things, direct that on all letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom, or from Gibraltar, Malta, the Ionian Isles, France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, to Bombay, or Madras or Calcutta, in the East Indies and forwarded from such port or place of arrival by packet-boats or private ships to any port or place situate or lying to the eastward of such port or place of arrival (Ceylon only excepted), and on all letters sent by packet-boats or private ships to Bombay from any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of Bombay, or sent by packet-boats or private ships to Madras, from any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of Madras, or sent by packet-boats or private ships to Calcutta from any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of Calcutta (Ceylon in every case only excepted) and from Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta, respectively, transmitted by the post to the United Kingdom or to Gibraltar, Malta, the Ionian Isles, France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, and on all letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, passing between any of the British colonies or any foreign country and any port or place situate or lying to the eastward of Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta (Ceylon only excepted) and sent via the United Kingdom and Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta (the conveyance between any such eastward port or place and Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta, being by packet-boats or private ships), there should be charged and taken (in addition to all other rates of postage payable by law on such letters) one uniform rate of postage of four pence, and that on all letters transmitted and sent, as thereinbefore in that clause mentioned, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there should be charged and paid (in addition to all other rates of postage payable by law on such letters), progressive and additional rates of postage, each additional rate being estimated at four pence, according to the scale of weight and number of rates fixed and declared by the said recited Act, but the additional rate of four pence thereinbefore mentioned was not to extend to the letters of soldiers or sailors in the service of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, provided such letters did not exceed half an ounce in weight, and were forwarded in conformity with the then existing regulations; provided also that such postage of four pence and such progressive and additional postage on such letters sent from the United Kingdom, or posted in Gibraltar, Malta, the Ionian Isles, or in any British colony or foreign country should be prepaid at the time of posting the same, except as to letters addressed to the island of Hong Kong, in China, and forwarded via Southampton and the Mediterranean packet-boats, on which letters, the pre-payment of such additional rates of postage should be optional with the sender; and the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury did by the said now reciting Warrant further direct, that on all printed British, foreign, and colonial newspapers transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom, or from Gibraltar, Malta, the Ionian Isles, France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, to Bombay or Madras or Calcutta, and forwarded from such port or place of arrival by packet-boats or private ships to any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of such port or place of arrival (Ceylon only excepted), and on all such newspapers sent by packet-boats or private ships to Bombay from any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of Bombay, or sent by packet-boats or private ships to Madras from any ports or places situate or lying to the eastward of Madras, or sent by packet-boats or private ships to Calcutta from any ports or places lying to the eastward of Calcutta (Ceylon in every case only excepted), and from Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta respectively, transmitted by the post to the United Kingdom, or to Gibraltar, Malta, the Ionian Isles, France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, and on all printed colonial and foreign newspapers transmitted by the post between any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country and any port or place situate or lying to the eastward of Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta (Ceylon only excepted), and sent via the United Kingdom and Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta (the conveyance between any such eastward port or place and Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta, being by packet-boats or private ships), there should be charged and taken in addition to all other rates of postage payable by law on such respective newspapers, one uniform rate of postage of two pence, provided that such additional rate of two pence on newspapers sent to any port or place situate or lying to the eastward of Bombay, Madras, or Calcutta should be prepaid at the time of posting the same, except as to newspapers addressed to the said island of Hong Kong, and forwarded via Southampton and the Mediterranean packet-boats, on which the pre-payment of such additional rate of postage should be optional with the sender.

And whereas it is expedient that so much of the said Warrant, bearing date the said 28th day of November, 1844, and of the several rates and progressive rates of postage therein respectively mentioned and contained, as are hereinbefore mentioned, recited, and set forth, should be repealed, annulled, and revoked.

1. Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Act, passed in the fourth year of Her present Majesty's reign, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided) order and direct that so much and such parts of the said Warrant, bearing date the said 28th day of November, 1844, as are hereinbefore mentioned, recited, and set forth, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled, respectively; and that the several rates and progressive rates of postage of four pence and of two pence respectively, in such parts of the said Warrant respectively mentioned and set forth, shall wholly cease and determine, and be no longer charged, taken, or payable.

2. And we do hereby further order and direct, that this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of November next.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the twenty-third day of October, 1856.
