

17. To alter existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges, and to make various provisions incidental to the several purposes of the intended Act.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 30th day of November, 1856, plans of the Par Canal and Harbour, and Railway, respectively, describing the lines or situations of the whole of the several works and the lands in or through which the same respectively, are or are to be made, maintained, varied, extended, or enlarged, or through which every communication to or from the several works, respectively, is or shall be made, and defining the limits of every lateral deviation from the line of the several works respectively, and duplicates of those plans respectively, and a book of reference to every such plan, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of all lands and houses in the line of the several works, respectively, or within the limits of deviation as defined upon the several plans, respectively, and describing such lands and houses, respectively, with sections of the several works, respectively, and duplicates thereof, respectively, will be deposited for public inspection at the office, in the town of St. Austell, of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, and a copy of so much of each of those plans and sections, respectively, as relates to each parish in or through which the work is or is intended to be made, maintained, varied, extended, or enlarged, or in which any lands or houses are, or are intended to be taken, or the title and possession whereof are intended to be confirmed, are situate, together with a copy of so much of the books of reference as relates to such parish, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of such parish, at his place of residence there, or in the case of any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his place of residence there, and a copy of this notice published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace, and every parish clerk, respectively.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 31st day of December, 1856, a copy of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the Honourable the House of Commons.

Scott and Syms, 7, Furnival's-inn, London,
Agents for the Bill.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that—

1476. Charles Mills, of 8, High-street, Camden Town, in the county of Middlesex, has given notice at the Office of the Commissioners of his intention to proceed with his application for letters patent for the invention of "an improvement in the hammer rails of pianofortes."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office, on the 23rd day of June, 1856.

1479. And John Saxby, of Brighton, Sussex, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "a mode of working simultaneously the points and signals of railways at junctions to prevent accidents."

1485. And Samuel Sinclair Robson, of 45, West-street, Gateshead, in the county of Durham, Agent, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in railway and other carriage breaks."

As set forth in their respective petitions, both recorded in the said office on the 24th day of June, 1856.

1491. And Michael Allen, of 39, Cavendish-grove, Wandsworth-road, in the county of Surrey, Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "an improvement in arranging and working the slide valves of steam engines."

1499. And James Kenyon, of Bury, in the county of Lancaster, and Richard Kenyon, of the same place, Manufacturers, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "an improved fabric to be used in printing and other similar purposes, and a method of joining or connecting the ends of the same."

As set forth in their respective petitions, both recorded in the said office on the 25th day of June, 1856.

1502. And John Gratrix, of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, and Alfred Knight, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Machinists, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in apparatus for registering a permanent record of the speed of steam or other engines, which apparatus is also applicable to watchmen's registers and other similar purposes."

1510. And Basilio Scariano and Raphaël Paul de Villamil, both of No. 10, Rue Lepelletier, in the city of Paris, Gentlemen, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in apparatus for measuring and setting out the forms of garments."

1511. And William Hudson, of Burnley, in the county of Lancaster, Machinist, and Christopher Catlow, of Clithero, in the same county, Overlooker, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "certain improvements in looms for weaving."

As set forth in their respective petitions, all recorded in the said office on the 26th day of June, 1856.

1514. And Charles Augustus Preller, of Lant-street, in the borough of Southwark, Leather Manufacturer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in unhairing and preparing skins and in tanning."

—Partly a communication.

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 27th day of June, 1856.

1518. And George Henry Ormerod, of New-church, in the parish of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster, Manufacturer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in machinery for brushing and cleaning cotton fabrics."

1520. And George White, of 5, Laurence Pountney-lane, Cannon-street, City, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "an improved poultice."—A communication from Dr. Antelme, of France.

1521. And Eugenio Vincenzi, of Turin (Piedmont), Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in Jacquard machines."

As set forth in their respective petitions, all recorded in the said office, on the 28th day of June, 1856.