TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1856.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of October, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Inkberrow, in the cathedral church of Hereford, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property herein-after described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein; and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said prebend of Inkberrow (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became vested in us on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the twenty-seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, by the decease of the Very Reverend Charles Scott Luxmoore, Dean of Saint Asaph, the then prebendary, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof.

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Inkberrow, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

C. C. Greville.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 31.) NORTH ATLANTIC—NEWFOUNDLAND.
Fixed Light on Cape Race.

THE Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have given notice,—That on and after the 15th day of December next a Light will be established in the Lighthouse recently erected on Cape Race, at the south-eastern extreme of Newfoundland.

The light will be a fixed light of the natural colour. The illuminating apparatus catoptric or by reflectors. The centre of the light will be elevated 180 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be seen from a ship's deck in clear weather at a distance of 17 miles, from N.E. by E. round by the south-east and south to west.

The light tower is a circular structure of iron, and rises from the centre of the keeper's dwelling. It is 50 feet in height from base to vane, and is painted in red and white vertical stripes, in order that it may be more easily distinguished in foggy weather. It stands at 35 yards to the westward of the old beacon, which still remains, but which has been cut down to a height of 24 feet, covered with a pointed roof, and painted in red and white stripes.

The lighthouse is in lat. $46^{\circ} 39' 12''$ N., long. $53^{\circ} 0' 0''$ West of Greenwich.

[All bearings are magnetic. Var. 28° W. in 1856, Increasing about $6'$ annually.]

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
1st October, 1856.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—North Atlantic, Nos. 2,059, 2,061; North America, East Coasts, sheets 1 and 3, Nos. 1,213, 266; Newfoundland, Point Lance to Cape Spear, No. 299; North American Lighthouse List, No. 7.

Partial Eclipse of the Skagen or Shaw Light.

THE Royal Navy Department at Copenhagen has given notice, that the new Lighthouse building on the Skagen or Skaw Point will attain such an elevation during the present year as will partially prevent the actual light on that point from being seen in the direction of the Skagen Spit, which extends from the Skagen Point to the eastward.

Mariners are hereby cautioned thereof.

Intermittent Light on Hielm Isle.

THE Royal Navy Department at Copenhagen has given notice, that on the 15th day of November, 1856, a new Light will be established on the Isle of Hielm, in the Kattegat, off the Coast of Jutland, in Denmark.

The light will be intermittent, with a flash every fourth minute. It will show a steady light of the natural colour for the space of 2 minutes 55 seconds, be suddenly eclipsed for 25 seconds, then exhibit a bright flash for about 15 seconds, and be again eclipsed for 25 seconds, when the steady light will reappear.

The illuminating apparatus will be a catadioptric lens of the second order. The light will be placed at a height of 164 feet above the mean level of the sea, and will be visible all round the horizon; the steady light at a distance of 16 miles, and the flash at about 19 miles in clear weather. The eclipses will be scarcely observable when a vessel is within a distance of 8 miles from the light.

The light tower is a round brick tower 37 feet high. It stands in lat $56^{\circ} 8' N.$, long. $10^{\circ} 48' 30''$ East of Greenwich.

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.

Fog Bell at Point Bonita.

THE United States Lighthouse Board has given notice, that a fog bell of 1500 pounds has been placed on the bluff just in front of the lighthouse tower at Point Bonita, North Head, San Francisco Bay, California.

The bell, with the machinery, is in a frame building, open in front on a level with the ground, and will be struck during foggy and thick weather, six blows at intervals of 16 seconds each, followed by a pause of 44 seconds. The bell is elevated 270 feet above the sea.

The firing of the fog gun will be continued, as usual, until further notice.

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.

Bell Buoy on Deep Hole Rock.

THE United States Lighthouse Board has given notice, that the Spar Buoy placed on the Deep Hole Rock off Cotuit, in Vineyard Sound, on the coast of Massachusetts, has been removed, and in its stead a Can Buoy of the second class (red and black horizontal stripes), with a bell weighing 150 pounds, secured on top in an iron frame, surmounted by a hoop iron day-mark, has been placed near this rock.

The bell is elevated $4\frac{1}{2}$ feet above the surface of the water; it is tolled by the action of the waves, wind, and tide, and can be heard in ordinary weather at the distance of about half a mile.

The day-mark is 16 inches in diameter, and is elevated 7 feet above the surface of the water.

Fixed Light in Edgemoggin Reach.

THE United States Lighthouse Board has given notice, that a light will be established on a tower now in course of erection on Fly or Green Island, near the eastern end of Edgemoggin Reach, on the coast of Maine.

The light will be a fixed light of the natural colour. The illuminating apparatus will be a Fresnel lens of the fifth order. The light will be placed at a height of 25 feet above the mean level of the sea, and will be visible in clear weather from the deck of a ship at a distance of about seven miles.

The light is intended as a guide to vessels running to and from Ellsworth, Blue Hill, and Mount Desert.

The light tower will be of brick, painted white, and will be attached to the keeper's house, which will be of wood, and painted brown. The lantern will be painted black.

The light will be lighted for the first time on the evening of Monday the 2nd day of February, 1857, and will be kept burning every night thereafter.

By command of their Lordships,

John Washington, Hydrographer.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 38.) EAST COAST OF BRAZIL.

Intermittent Light at Maceio.

THE Brazilian Government has given notice, that on the 1st day of July last a new light was established in the port of Maceio, capital of the province of Alagoas, on the east coast of Brazil.

The light is intermittent, with a flash every second minute. It shows a steady light of the natural colour for 70 seconds, it is then eclipsed for 16 seconds, then a bright flash for 12 seconds, another eclipse for 22 seconds, and then again the steady light; thus completing its phases in an interval of 2 minutes.

The illuminating apparatus is a catadioptric lens of the third order. The light is placed at an elevation of 208 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be visible in clear weather at a distance of 22 miles.

The light tower stands on the western point of the hill which overhangs the city of Maceio, on the spot where a powder magazine formerly stood, in lat. $9^{\circ} 39' 18''$ S., long. $35^{\circ} 41' 24''$ west of the meridian of Greenwich.

(No. 39.) UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

THE United States Lighthouse Board has issued the following notices:—

Fixed Light at Absecum, New Jersey.

On and after the 15th day of January, 1857, a light will be exhibited from the light tower recently erected at Absecum, New Jersey.

The light will be a fixed white light. The illuminating apparatus will be a catadioptric lens of the first order. The light will have an elevation of 167 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship in ordinary weather at a distance of about 20 miles.

The light tower is of brick, unpainted, and will be surmounted by an iron lantern painted black. Its approximate position as deduced from the coast survey charts is in lat. $39^{\circ} 22'$ N., long. $74^{\circ} 25'$ west of Greenwich.

Beaver Tail Fixed Light, Newport.

On and after the 20th day of October, 1856, a light will be exhibited from the new tower recently constructed at Beaver Tail, on the south end of Conanicut Island, at the entrance to Newport Harbour, Rhode Island.

The light will be, as formerly, a fixed white light. The illuminating apparatus will be a Fresnel lens of the third order. The light will be placed at a height of 80 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a vessel in ordinary weather at a distance of 14 miles.

The light tower is of granite, of the natural colour; it is square, and 55 feet high from base to vane, and stands 33 yards to the north of the old tower. The keeper's dwelling-house is of brick, whitewashed, of two stories in height and joined to the tower by a one story connecting room.

On the same day the former light will be discontinued, and the old tower will be demolished.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 40.) BLACK SEA.

THE Director of Lights for the Turkish Government has recently issued the following notices:—

Fixed Light at the Sulina.

On and after the 15th day of September last the harbour light provisionally exhibited at the entrance of the Sulina or Middle branch of the Danube would be replaced by a coast light of greater power.

The new light is a fixed light of the second order. It is said to be placed at an elevation of 65 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship in clear weather at a distance of 15 miles.

The light tower is of stone, circular, and coloured white. It stands on the south side of the entrance, in lat. $45^{\circ} 9' 0''$ N., long. $29^{\circ} 41' 0''$ East of Greenwich.

Revolving Light on Fidonisi.

On and after the 15th day of October last, the harbour light provisionally exhibited upon Fidonisi or Serpents' Isle, off the mouths of the Danube, would be replaced by a coast light of greater power.

The new light is revolving, showing a bright face every half minute. It stands at a height of 195 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship at a distance of 18 miles.

In clear weather the eclipses will not be total to an observer when within 8 miles of the light.

The lighthouse is a wooden structure, 70 feet in height from base to vane, and is placed on the summit of the isle, in lat. $45^{\circ} 15' 30''$ N., long. $30^{\circ} 14' 54''$ East of Greenwich.

Red Lights at Kum Kaleh—Dardanelles.

On and after the 15th day of September last, two red lights would be established at Kum Kaleh, in the western battery of the First or New Castle of Asia, on the south side of the entrance to the Dardanelles.

The lights are placed in line one above the other, the elevation of the upper light being 50 feet above the level of the sea. At a distance of $1\frac{3}{4}$ miles the two lights will combine and form one light, the range of which will be about 4 miles.

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.

Pimlico Improvements.

(Extension of Time for Compulsory Purchase.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act to extend the time granted by “The Pimlico Improvement Act, 1853” (Public), for the compulsory purchase of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, authorised by the said Act, and also by the Act of the 15th and 16th Victoria, cap. 78 (Public), to be purchased or taken by the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings, for the purposes of the said Acts, or either of them.

Dated this seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

By Order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings,
John Gardiner, Solicitor, Board of Works,
&c., Whitehall-place, Westminster.

Public Offices Extension.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings to pull down and remove certain houses and tenements, situate in Upper Crown-street, Crown-court, Lower Crown-street, Charles-street, Duke-street, Upper Charles-street, King-street, Whitehall, and Parliament-street, in the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex; and to appropriate the sites of the said houses and tenements, and a small portion of Saint James’s-park, and all the ground described in the plan hereinafter referred to, whether now used as streets, ways, yards, pleasure grounds, vacant ground, or otherwise, as a site or sites for the erection thereon of offices for the public service. Also to empower the said Commissioners to stop up any streets, ways, paths, or passages which now lead into, or pass upon, through, or over the site hereinbefore described, or any part thereof; and in such Act powers will be contained for the compulsory purchase of all such lands, tenements, or hereditaments as may be necessary for carrying the purposes aforesaid into effect, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands, tenements, or hereditaments proposed to be taken for the purposes aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that a duplicate plan and section, describing the situation of the houses and tenements proposed to be pulled down and removed, with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the said houses and tenements, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office, at the Sessions House, Clerkenwell, in the said county of Middlesex; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the city and liberty of Westminster, at his office, at the Sessions House, Clerkenwell aforesaid; and that on or before the said 30th day of November instant, a copy of the said plan and book of reference, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, at his place of abode,

Dated this seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

By Order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings,
John Gardiner, Solicitor, Board of Works,
&c., Whitehall-place, Westminster.

Brandon’s Estate.

(Amendment of Act; Renewal of Ecclesiastical Leases; Confirmation of Ecclesiastical Leases; Partitions; General Arrangements.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act for all or some of the following purposes, to wit:

1st.—To amend or repeal the Local and Personal Act of 45 George 3rd, chap. 115.

2ndly.—To make further provision for the renewal of leases confirmed by or granted under that Act.

3rdly.—To make provision for the confirmation of leases granted under the Local and Personal Act of 14 George 3rd, chap. 43.

4thly.—To authorize arrangements between all or some of the parties claiming under the wills of the late Samuel Brandon and Thomas Brandon, respectively, deceased, and the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury, and any other parties interested, touching such renewals, confirmations, and other matters affecting the estates of the said Samuel Brandon and Thomas Brandon, respectively, or parts thereof.

5thly.—To authorize partitions of those estates or parts thereof, respectively.

6thly.—To extend the jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery, with respect to those estates respectively, and the purposes of the intended Act, or some of them.

7thly.—To give effect to such orders and decrees as the Court may make, for any purposes of the intended Act.

8thly.—To confer, vary, and extinguish rights and privileges, so far as may be requisite for the several purposes of the intended Act.

And notice is hereby given, that copies of the Bill for the intended Act, will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 31st day of December, 1856.

Parker, Rooke, and Parker, Solicitors, 17,
Bedford-row,

Otley and Skipton Turnpike Road.

(Continuation of Term; Repeal or Amendment of Act.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament passed in the 4th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the 4th, intituled "An Act for repairing and improving the road from Otley to Skipton, in the county of York," and to continue and extend the term granted by the said Act, or any further term granted by any subsequent Acts, or to repeal the first-mentioned Act, either wholly or in part, and to create a further term and make further provisions with reference to the said road; and powers will be taken by the proposed Bill to continue or alter the tolls, rates, and duties granted by the said first-mentioned Act, or any subsequent Acts, or some of them, to levy new tolls, rates, or duties, to continue, confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, or duties, to vary or repeal the restrictions as to the erection of toll-gates and levying of tolls imposed by the first-mentioned Act; to extinguish all or part of the arrears of interest due to the creditors of the said road, to reduce the rate of interest due and payable to the said creditors, to pay off, compound, or make other arrangements with reference to the mortgages, debts, and other charges on the said road or tolls, to vary or extinguish some of the rights, privileges, and remedies of the mortgagees and other creditors thereon, to alter the application of the income arising from the said road, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges. And notice is hereby given, that printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this fourth day of November, 1856.

Charles Carr, Solicitor for the said Bill.

Burslem and Tunstall Gas Company.

(Incorporation of Company; Supply of Gas to Burslem and its Neighbourhood; Extension of Works and Increase of Capital; Transfer to Local Board of Health).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Burslem and Tunstall Gas Light Company intend to apply to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to effect the following objects, or some of them; that is to say: to alter, amend, or annul the deeds of settlement under which the Company is now constituted, bearing date, respectively, the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and the second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and to incorporate the shareholders of the Company under the same or a different name; and to vest in the incorporated Company the lands, property, rights, and powers vested in the existing Company, or in any persons as trustees on their behalf, and to enable the incorporated Company to hold, possess, and exercise the same. To confer upon the incorporated Company all the powers contained in "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847," and "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," altered, extended, or modified, as may be necessary, and all such other powers as will the better enable the incorporated Company to carry out the purposes for which the existing Company was established, and the objects of the proposed Act. To enable the incorporated Company to maintain, improve, and extend the works of the existing Company, and the gasometers and apparatus connected therewith, situate at Longport, in the parish of Burslem, in the county of Stafford. To authorise the incorporated Company to supply with gas the several parishes, towns, townships, hamlets, villages, and places of Burslem, Rushton Grange, Sneyd, Abbey Hulton, Cobridge, Sneyd

Green, Tunstall, otherwise Tunstall Court, Sandyford, Golden Hill, Longport, Brownhills, Wolstanton, Chell, Norton-in-the-Moors, Milton, and Smallthorn, all in the county of Stafford. To break up turnpike-roads, and highways, and public and private streets, roads, bridges, and places; and to lay down, maintain, alter, and repair mains, pipes, and other apparatus for the supply of gas; and to levy and receive rates, rents, charges, and remunerations for such supply, and for the sale of coke, refuse, and other articles. To alter any existing rates, rents, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of rates, rents, and charges, and other rights and privileges. To authorise the incorporated Company to acquire additional lands for the purposes of gas works, and for other purposes. To enable them to carry on all the business of a gas light and coke Company. To authorise them to raise further moneys by shares and by borrowing, and to apply the money to be borrowed, inter alia, in discharge of the liabilities incurred by the existing Company, or any of the directors thereof, in aid of the capital authorised to be raised by the said deeds of settlement. To enable the incorporated Company to sell or lease their undertaking to the Local Board of Health of the parish of Burslem, and to enable the Local Board to accept such sale or lease; and in case of a sale, to raise money for the purpose by mortgage of any rates for the time being authorised to be levied by the purchasers, or of any property for the time being vested in them; and to authorise the purchasers to grant to the shareholders of the Company annuities, redeemable or irredeemable, as the consideration for such purchase, and to charge such annuities upon the undertaking so sold, or upon the rates authorised to be levied by the purchasers, or upon both. And in case of a lease, to charge the rent or other consideration for the same upon such undertaking, or upon such rates, or upon both, with powers and remedies for recovering payment thereof. To enable the Local Board, in case of such sale or lease to them, to levy tolls, rates, and duties, for the purpose of carrying the same into effect, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby also given, that on or before the thirty-first day of December next, printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this first day of November, 1856.

Joseph Alcock, Solicitor, Burslem.

Lewes and Uckfield Railway.

(Railway from the Keymer Branch of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway to Uckfield. Incorporation of Company; working arrangements with, and guarantee loans and subscriptions by the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company; Amendment of Acts).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session of 1857, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate a Company for the purpose of constructing a railway, with all proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, to commence by a junction with the Keymer Branch of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway, in the parish of Hamsey, in the county of Sussex, at a distance of about 300 yards to the south of the point where the said Keymer Branch of the said London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway crosses the Offham to Barcombe Public Road, on a level, at the gate numbered 19 there, and to terminate near the town of Uckfield, in the parish of Uckfield, in the said county of Sussex, in a field, in the occupation of James George Langham, marked number 1, in the parish of Uckfield, upon the plan intended to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, adjoining to and on the west side of the turnpike-road, at Uckfield Bridge, in the said parish of Uckfield, and on the south side of the stream running under Uckfield Bridge aforesaid; and to pass in, from, through, or into the several parishes and other places following, or some of them; that is to say: Hamsey, Barcombe, Ringmer, Isfield, Little Horsted, and Uckfield, all in the said county of Sussex.

And it is intended by the said Bill to apply for powers for the compulsory purchase of lands, houses, and other property, to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with such lands, houses, and other property, and also any other rights or privileges which would in anywise interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended railway.

To empower the intended Company and the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company (if they think fit) to enter into and carry into effect any contracts or arrangements which may be agreed upon for or with reference to the construction, maintenance, working, and use, by the latter Company, of the intended railway and works, or any part thereof; the supply and maintenance of rolling stock, and other stock and plant for the same, the collection, regulation, management, and transmission of traffic passing to or from the same, the collection, application, division, and apportionment of tolls, and the employment of officers and servants.

To empower the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company (if they think fit) to guarantee interest or dividend on all or any part of the capital and loans of the intended Company, and also to subscribe towards and take shares in the undertaking of the intended Company, and to lend money to the intended Company, and to apply for those purposes any part of the funds or moneys of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company, and which may not be required for the purposes of their own undertaking, and to empower them to appoint one or more of the Directors of the proposed Company.

To alter (so far as may be requisite for the purposes aforesaid) the tolls, rates, and duties which the said London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company are now authorised to levy, and to confer exemptions therefrom; and also (so far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid), to amend the Acts relating to that Company; viz.: local and personal Acts 5 and 6 William 4, chapter 10; 6 and 7 William 4, chapter 121; 7 William 4 and 1 Victoria, chapter 119; 1 and 2 Victoria, chapter 20; 2 and 3 Victoria, chapter 18; 3 and 4 Victoria, chapter 129; 6 and 7 Victoria, chapters 27 and 62; 7 and 8 Victoria, chapters 67, 91, 92, and 97; 8 and 9 Victoria, chapters 52, 113, 196, 199, and 200; 9 and 10 Victoria, chapters 54, 63, 64, 68, 69, 83, 234, 281, and 283; 10 and 11 Victoria, chapters 167, 244, and 276; 11 and 12 Victoria, chapter 136; 16 and 17 Victoria, chapters 88 and 100; 17 and 18 Victoria, chapters 61 and 68; and 19 and 20 Victoria, chapter 87.

And also to levy tolls, rates, or duties, upon or in respect of the said railway, and to confer, vary, or extinguish, other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said intended railway and works, together with a book of reference thereto, a published map with the intended line of railway delineated thereon, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex, at his office at Lewes, in the said county, on or before the 30th day of this instant, November. And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish, in or through which the said railway and works are intended to be made, together with a copy of so much of the said book of reference as relates to such parish, and a copy of the said notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his place of abode.

And notice is hereby further given, that copies of the said proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 31st day of December next.

Dated this 4th day of November, 1856.

CONTRACT FOR COCOA.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House,
October 31, 1856.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 13th November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford,

Cocoa, 150 tons; half to be delivered in four weeks, and the remainder in four weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders will be received for the whole or any portion of the cocoa; and their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

The cocoa to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the cocoa (not less than 2 lbs.) must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Cocoa," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

November 1, 1856.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 13th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford,

Willow Rods, 250 mille; half to be delivered in one month, and the remainder in one month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Coopers' Flags, 500 bolts; half to be delivered in one month, and the remainder in one month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles, and their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also for an unlimited power of selection.

Samples of the rods (not less than 500 great tale), and of the flags (not less than a bolt), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, and no tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR DANTZIC OAK, THICK-STUFF AND PLANK.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, November 7, 1856.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 2nd December next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with 3,600 loads of Dantzic Oak, Thickstuff and Plank.

To be delivered in the years 1857 and 1858, according to a distribution, which with a form of the tender and the conditions of the contract may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Dantzic Oak, Thickstuff and Plank," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £5,000, for the due performance of the contract.
