

Warrants, bearing date, respectively, the said 7th day of July, 1855, and the said 18th day of September, 1856, relating to the several colonies of Western Australia and Tasmania respectively, and the rates of postage chargeable and payable for the transmission by the post of such packets between the said United Kingdom and the said two several last-mentioned colonies.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said two hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order and direct, that so much and such parts of the said recited Warrant, bearing date the 22nd day of February, 1855, and of the Schedule B. thereunto annexed, as relates to the said several colonies of New Zealand, New South Wales, and South Australia, respectively, and the several rates of postage chargeable and payable for the transmission by the post of the packets therein mentioned between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the said several colonies respectively; shall be and the same are hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled respectively; and that the said several rates of postage lastly hereinbefore mentioned shall wholly cease and determine. And we do further order and direct, that the said several before-recited Warrants, bearing date respectively the 7th day of July, 1855, and the 18th day of September, 1856, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled respectively, and that the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage in such last-mentioned two several Warrants respectively mentioned and set forth shall wholly cease and determine.

And we do further order and direct, that all packets, consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, may be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any parts of the colonies, respectively, of New Zealand, New South Wales, South Australia, Western Australia, and Tasmania respectively, and that on every such packet so transmitted, under the provisions of this Warrant as aforesaid, if not exceeding half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for the transmission thereof, as aforesaid, direct by packet boat or through Egypt, so long as no transit rate of postage be payable thereon, the uniform single rate of postage of eight pence; and that on every such packet, exceeding half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid such progressive and additional rates of postage as are directed to be charged, taken, and paid on and in respect of the several packets mentioned, and contained in and authorised to be transmitted by the post under the provisions of the said recited Warrant, bearing date the 22nd day of February, 1855, and remaining unrepealed.

And we do further order and direct, that the terms "books," "publications," or "works of literature or art," herein used, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, have the like meaning and include the same articles and things, in all respects, as are mentioned and described to be meant and included by the like terms used in the said Warrant, bearing date the 22nd day of February, 1855.

And we do further order and direct, that all such respective packets to be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this present Warrant shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions contained in the said recited Warrant, bearing date the 22nd day of February, 1855, with respect to the several packets therein mentioned (except such as relate exclusively to packets posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales addressed to the United Kingdom), and that all such respective packets so to be transmitted, under the provisions of this present Warrant, shall be subject, as well to the several progressive and additional rates of postage aforesaid, as also to the said several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions (except as aforesaid), respectively mentioned, expressed, and contained in and by the said hereinbefore-recited Warrant, bearing date the 22nd day of February, 1855, in like manner in all respects, and as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes, as if the said several progressive and additional rates of postage, and the said several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions (except such only as relate exclusively to packets posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales addressed to the United Kingdom), respectively mentioned and contained in the said hereinbefore-recited Warrant, bearing date the 22nd day of February, 1855, were contained, inserted, expressed, and repeated in this present Warrant.

And we do further order and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant duly made at any time hereafter, to alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

And we do further order and direct, that this Warrant shall come into operation on the thirteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.
