

In the parish churchyard, in the burial-ground of the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel and in Brook-street Burial-ground, TOTTENHAM, from the first of January to the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven;

In the parish churchyard, in St. Paul's Churchyard, in the old and new churchyards of St. James Latchford, in St. Alban's Roman Catholic Burial-ground, and in the burial-grounds of Cairo-street Chapel, and of Friars-green Chapel, all in the borough of WARINGTON, from the first of January to the twenty-fifth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven;

In the new parish burial-ground, and in Bechen Chapel Burial-ground, in the parish of WATFORD, Herts, from the first of January to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven;

In the churchyard of the parish of WHEATLEY, Oxfordshire, from the first of January to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven;

In the New Synagogue, Jewish burial-ground, in the parish of St. Mary, WHITECHAPL, from the first of February to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven;

In the churchyard of NEW WINDSOR, in the burial-ground of the Baptist Chapel, and in the Acre Burial-ground, in Windsor, from the first of January to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven;

In the parish churchyard and in the burial-grounds of the old and new Independent Chapels at WIVENHOE, Essex, from the first of February to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven;

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the eleventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the church of St. Matthew, Holbeck, in LEEDS, from and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and such time has since been extended to the thirty-first of December instant, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that interment be discontinued in the said churchyard on and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, within twenty feet of any building, and in the rest of the churchyard, except in vaults and graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the disturbance of remains, interments be wholly discontinued on and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eleventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, it was directed that burials should be discontinued from and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the burial-ground of the Independent Chapel, LUDLOW, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that interment be discontinued in that part of the said Independent Burial-ground which is within five yards of the school-room, which has been previously buried in; that no grave in the said burial-ground be less than five feet deep, that one body only be buried in each grave, and that no grave be re-opened.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the churchyard of St. Michael's, SHREWSBURY from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and such time has since been extended to the thirty-first day of December in the same year, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that burials be discontinued from and after the said thirty-first of December instant, in the said churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in powdered charcoal, and separately entombed in an air-tight manner.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the churchyard and in the new burial-ground of St. Mary, SWANSEA, and in the churchyard of St. John-juxta-Swansea, from and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and such time has since been extended to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that burials be wholly discontinued from and after the said first day of January, in the said churchyards and new burial-ground, except in such now existing vaults and walled graves as are more than three yards distant from any dwelling-house, which can be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in powdered charcoal, and separately entombed in an air-tight manner.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of December, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Vestry Clerks of the undermentioned parishes, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation, stating, that for the protection of the public health, burials should be forthwith discontinued in the vaults underneath St. James's Church, CLAPHAM, in the vaults underneath the Wesleyan Chapel, Great Queen-street, in the parish of ST. GILES-IN-THE-FIELDS, and in the vaults under the Church of ST. GEORGE BLOOMSBURY.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twelfth day of February next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parishes, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said twelfth day of February.

C. C. Greville.
